Council Rejects Ban on Building

By MARION BARTOSIAK Press-Record Staff Writer

A resolution which would restrict building permits in an area east of the Nameoki drainage ditch to the eastern corporate limits of the city failed to achieve final adoption Monday night at a meeting of the Granite City Council.

A 10-3 negative vote followed a discussion which showed that the ordinance was unacceptable as drawn, though it contains a clause providing for prior review by a special sewer committee of the City Council.

It was designed to prevent construction of homes in areas with drainage problems and to prevent flooding of adjoining farm properties.

Fifth Ward Alderman Steve Basarich called for an engineering report on the problem before taking action.

Seventh Ward Alderman Thomas Boker said a construction ban would be disastrous to development of the new Lexington subdivision, while Sixth Ward Alderman Paul Schuler and Third Ward Alderman Clyde Boyd disagreed.

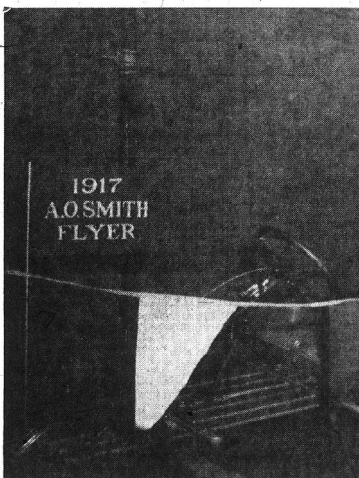

Boyd noted that the Lexington development already has been approved.

Boker warned: "We're pushing drainage water onto other people's property and we can be taken to court over this. The drainage water must either go to the Nameoki ditch or onto farms."

Boyd called for a consulting engineer to work with three laymen on a special sewer committee.

The Illinois AFL-CIO "really knows how to hurt a fellow."

It not only endorsed Lt. Gov. Paul Simon (D) for governor—the first time it has made such an endorsement before party state meetings and the primary election—but also voted this week in Springfield to tear the picture of Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie (R) out of the AFL-CIO convention program.

The Selective Service System Tuesday lowered the lottery number at which young men can expect to be drafted this year to 125.

Previously, young men whose birthdays fell on the 140 lowest numbers for the 1971 draft were designated as likely to be inducted.

Another change is that men will be given 30-day deferments for military service the previous 10 days. As a result, no one will be drafted during October.

The Illinois General Assembly recessed Tuesday after recessing June 30. However, with most Springfield accommodations reserved for the annual Illinois AFL-CIO convention this week, both the House and Senate quickly adjourned until next Tuesday.

Bingo is legal in Illinois and the biggest crowds so far have been reported at a Collinsville Catholic church, with 1,900 on one occasion. A Granite City Catholic church is said to have attracted 200 people to an "experimental" gathering.

SIU-SW has been allocated $300,000 by the Illinois Budget Bureau to buy the former Shurtleff College, Alton, which it has been renting. But the bureau continues to withhold $1,200,000 allocated for a temporary School of Dental Medicine location at Shurtleff.

Columbus Day, Monday, Oct. 11, will be observed as a legal holiday by the First Granite City National Bank, Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, American National Bank, Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association and State Loan and Savings Association.

$48,900 Grant Available
Smith noted that a $48,900 state grant has been approved and should be available in about six weeks.

He recommended that part of it be used to employ some management company to review the current operation of the Igou district, and that $30,000 could be used immediately to repair the district's North pumping station to prevent flood damage.

Sgt. Dudas Electrocuted At Army Base

Staff Sgt. Michael Joseph Dudas, 33, was electrocuted accidentally at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The Granite City man formerly resided in the 800 block of Niedringhaus Avenue.

He and two other soldiers, Staff Sgt. Ronald Blankenship, 29, of Waynesville, Mo., and Pvt. Larry Ray, 19, of St. Louis, were erecting a television antenna when it was swayed by a gust of wind and came into contact with a high-voltage power line.

Sergeant Blankenship suffered leg burns and Private Ray had third-degree burns on the right hand and legs. They were admitted to the U. S. General Leonard Wood Army Hospital, where the three had been assigned to the medical company. Born in Hungary, Sgt. Dudas moved to Granite City in 1957 and worked at the Tri-City Grocery Co. warehouse until he entered military service in April 1959.

Prior to being assigned to Ft. Leonard Wood, he had completed a tour of duty in Vietnam. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Julia Maria Dudas; two sons, Tony Michael, 10, and David, six; two daughters, Jenny, nine, and Suzanne, seven, all of Fort Leonard Wood; and four cousins, Steve Kozar, Edward Kozar, and John and Betty Mertz, all of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Opposition to Utility Rate Hikes Voiced

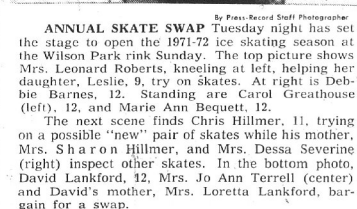

Local industry opposition to a proposed 15% increase in the cost of electric power was expressed this week at Illinois Commerce Commission hearings on the proposed increase in Springfield.

Randall Robertson, a Granite City attorney representing Granite City Steel Co. and the Industrial Power Users Group, a group organized to fight the increase, charged there are differences between figures given to stockholders and figures reported to the Federal Power Commission by Illinois Power Co.

Robertson also is preparing to oppose a 23% rate hike proposed by the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. at ICC hearings Nov. 15-17.

In cross examining D. R. Davies, an IP vice-president, this week; the attorney said that in 1968 the power company reported to stockholders gross ad-

Skating at Park Ice Rink to Start Sunday

To the delight of many youth and adult skating enthusiasts, the fifth season of ice skating at the Wilson Park rink will start at 1 p.m. Sunday, beginning a seven-day week schedule of operation.

Several special activities have been arranged for the 1971-72 season, appealing to different age levels, including an extra skating session from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Monday when schools are dismissed for Columbus Day.

Preparations to open the rink began Monday when equipment was thoroughly checked and proved to be in good working condition. Harold Brown, Granite City park district superintendent, said.

Despite warm "Indian summer" weather enjoyed this week, the ice is forming "very well," he reported this morning, adding that no delay is expected in opening the rink Sunday afternoon.

Hours for Skating
General skating sessions are planned this season each weekday, Monday through Friday, from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Saturday sessions are from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; Sunday sessions are from 1 to 3:30 p.m.; 3:30 to 6 p.m.; 6 to 8:30 p.m.; and from 8:30 to 11 p.m. (adults only).

Free instruction will be furnished skaters at an adult session each Wednesday from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m., and for children attending the skate school from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturdays, Brown said.

A "family night" program on Tuesdays, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., will enable resident families to skate at reduced cost; and the park official pointed out that residents may save money by purchasing book tickets at a reduced price. Books contain-

Target Date for New High School September 1973

By GARY SCHNEIDER Press-Record Staff Writer

The new Wein tract high school at Maryville and Nameoki roads should be completed and ready for use by September of 1973, architects told the Granite City School Board Monday night.

Henry Gabriel, Sylvester Dulgeroff and Virgil Dulgeroff, designers of sections of the new school, reported that plans for the building are progressing well and should be ready for construction bidding about Dec. 1.

"After that, the construction should take one and one-half to two years to complete," Gabriel told the board.

Gabriel cited delays and changes in plans affecting the preparation of structural and mechanical plans.

One "hold" came in August 1970, when it was found gas was not available for heating purposes. Plans were revised to provide for electric heat. In January of this year, it was ruled that gas will be available and plans again were revised, Gabriel said.

In March, it was proposed that the planned junior high school-grade school combination be converted to a high school. When the public approved the high school idea in a referendum, the plans again had to be changed. Recently, gymnasium facilities were altered due to financial projections and plans had to be further modified.

Structural engineering work should be completed within six weeks while mechanical engineering plans and specifications will require about eight weeks to complete, Gabriel said.

"The architects suggested that the board request bids on filling the site under the proposed building so that a 'plateau' of fill, about six feet high, can be put in and compressed before cold weather causes a delay until spring."

"I believe you can save two to three months by bidding now, weather permitting," Gabriel told the school board members.

He described the proposed fill as a "Monks' Mound type of thing" upon which the school could be constructed. "It is not being added separately or filling the site would mean any additional cost on the project," Gabriel said.

The architects agreed that calling of bids on the fill project is a gamble and that school board members could negotiate any time that might be saved by early bidding. "If so, there still is nothing lost," Gabriel noted.

The board authorized bid specifications for the fill project, to be completed within two weeks. Contractors will be given one week to bid and sealed bids will be opened at the board Nov. 1 meeting.

The state has approved an application by the Granite City district for 50% reimbursement of the cost of crossing guards employed at Maryville and Mitchell Schools over the next three years.

Dale Rea, assistant to the superintendent, reported to the board Monday night that the approval was granted under the Illinois Highway Safety Project, and that the reimbursement will be available subject to annual applications and approvals. Rea also intimated the board that an application to participate in the Non-Food Assistance Program of the Child Nutrition Act has been approved.

A letter of inquiry has been submitted to Madison County requesting a portion of the county's $496,500 allocation received under the Emergency Employment Act, Rea said.

The letter indicates the district's willingness to participate in the county school plan, which would make the district eligible for a portion of the funds, he added.

A letter of intent to participate in a Title II program for libraries and material centers has been submitted, Rea said. The program would give full reimbursement under a grant determined by enrollment, he commented.

Rea reported that expenditures under the 1970-71 Title I project total $1,105 and the final report will be audited this week before being submitted to the state.

The board approved the continuation of an ice skating program for high school students during seventh periods.

Under the program, 600 students in physical education classes will ice skate at the Wilson Park rink. A total of $50 was approved for rental of the rink and other park expenses.

Fireman Injured as Auto Battery Explodes

Fireman Walmer Schmidtke, 36, was injured when the battery of a burning auto exploded and sprayed acid in his left eye at noon Tuesday on Ponton Road at Nameoki Grade School.

He was given emergency treatment on the scene and at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was referred to a physician. Damage was estimated at $50.

In another alarm, firemen were called to Carp's Department Store at 3:55 p.m. Tuesday when a fluorescent light ballast overheated. Damage was estimated at $50.

Second Explorer from Local Post Paralyzed

By VALERIE EVENEDEN Press-Record Staff Writer

The second member of Madison Lions-Police Explorer Post 10-4 is a patient in a St. Louis hospital recovering from a paralytic condition, it was learned this week.

Rodger Barks, 18, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Barks, 1120 Meridian St., was admitted 10 days ago to the Missouri Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, when partial paralysis was noticed on the right side of his face. He is in Room 113 and now has no visitors.

His ailment has been diagnosed as Guillain-Barre disease, an illness related to polio, which affects the muscles and nervous system.

Treatment includes complete bed rest for six months and virtually no activities, including school, for one year, Mrs. Barks said. He is not expected to remain hospitalized for a long period, she added.

Diving Mishap
The other Post 10-4 explorer hospitalized is Tom Hooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Hooks, Venice, who was seriously injured June 4 in a diving accident while attending a national explorer meeting in Washington, D. C.

The Hooks youth, almost totally paralyzed, has been transferred to a Washington hospital to the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where visitors may call from 4 to 8 p.m.

Barks is a senior at Madison High School. He also is a member of the Sons of the Legion, Post 113.

Man Is Charged in Exchange of Gunfire

Johnny Oakley, 35, of 120 Carver St. was held in the Madison jail today in lieu of $250 bond on a charge of aggravated battery. He was arrested at Third Street and Madison Avenue at 8:20 p.m. yesterday on a warrant stemming from a fight in front of a tavern in the 800 block of Jackson Street at 6:45 p.m. Sept. 25.

Oakley allegedly fought with a patron of the tavern, left and returned with a shotgun. He allegedly fired one shot over the man's head in front of the tavern. The other man ran to his home nearby and reportedly began firing at Oakley with another shotgun. Oakley sought protection behind a utility pole until the gunfire ceased and then fled from the scene, police alleged.

F. B. Bornmann, 67, Former Resident, Dies

Ferdinand B. Bornmann, 67, Carlinville, a former resident of Granite City, was stricken with an apparent heart attack while visiting a cousin, Carl Van Bibber, in Rella, Mo., and died at 3 a.m. Wednesday.

Bornmann lived in Carlinville, Mo., from 1922 to 1942, when he moved to a farm near Carlinville.

Mr. Bornmann was employed at General Steel Industries while living in this area and also was owner and operator of a confectionery near his home at 2200 Illinois Ave.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ella Mae Hammon of Carlinville; two sisters, Mrs. Edith Lenger of Herman, Mo., and Mrs. Elmer (Alda) Zeugin of Granite City; and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

A letter from Granite City American Federation of Teachers Local 743 said two personnel positions were filled without appropriate job posting.

Raymond T. Jones, administrative assistant-personnel, said that a female counseling job at Coolidge Junior High School opened just prior to the opening of school and had to be filled immediately, with no time for posting.

Jones said the position of a male counselor at Granite City High School was filled because it had erroneously been called a dean's position rather than a counseling post.

"The board decided to write a letter to the union explaining circumstances of the two hirings and relating that all interested applicants were considered for the positions."

Juvenile Officer Role Topic of Club

The role of the juvenile officer was explained to the Madison Rotary Club Wednesday by William Fanning, Madison's first full-time juvenile officer.

Fanning outlined key areas, such as opening lines of communications between youth and the police, working with schools, courts and police, and establishing preventive programs to help children to not become delinquent.

Aid Sought for Family Of Hit-Run Victim, 15

A benefit fund was established this week to aid the family of Kenneth Hartman, 15, who was fatally injured when struck by a hit-and-run vehicle Aug. 28 in the 3000 block of Pontoon Road.

Contributions from the public will assist the family with hospital and funeral expenses, amounting to several thousand dollars, a spokesman for Amvets Post 51, organizers of the drive, said today.

The son of Mr. and Frank (Joyce) Hartman, 4015 Pontoon Road, Kenneth was walking on the side of the road when a westbound auto struck him from the rear, throwing the youth about 25 feet.

The auto, described by witnesses as a red 1969 or 1970 Chevrolet, was driven away. The motorist still is being sought.

For the next four days, a team of highly specialized physicians attempted to save the boy's life, utilizing a kidney machine to aid his damaged kidneys. He was given 35 units of blood for internal and external bleeding but died Sept. 1.

The insurance car unit at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Hospital bills for the extensive treatment amounted to $10,000.

Contributions from the public will assist the family with hospital and funeral expenses, amounting to several thousand dollars, a spokesman for Amvets Post 51, organizers of the drive, said today.

Green Light for Highway Bonds

By RAY SERATI
Copy News Service

Springfield—Just how soon some $100 million in bonds to aid the construction of a supplemental highway system can be sold has not been completely determined by state officials, but plans for construction of certain segments continue.

The preliminary plans of the proposed supplemental highway system will link every section of the state. The big question remains as to where the freeways will be located.

Hearings have been held in some areas of the state concerning the proposed freeways. However, a majority of the hearings must still be held.

Another matter that must be settled is which ones will be constructed first. Presumably the Division of Highways, which is in the Public Works Department headed by William P. Collins, will decide to build the freeways in areas where they are needed the most.

One of the major freeways will extend from Rockford to the Salem area, one from the Springfield area to the Hannibal, Mo. area and one from the Chicago area to Southern Illinois.

Another will run from the Moline-Rock Island area to the Alton-Granite City area along the state's western border.

The Illinois Supreme Court has cleared the way for the supplemental freeway in a new ruling. The court said such funding of the building program is constitutional.

Also included in the program is money for the financially strapped transit districts.

The entire total of the bond issue program as approved by the General Assembly is $100 million. However, only $100 million will be sold first to get the supplemental highway program off the ground.

Naturally, the way the bond market is going will have a great deal to do with just how soon the bonds will be sold. At present, "all systems are go" to try to get the bonds marketed.

New Group to Discuss Dorey Slough Project

A get-acquainted meeting of the new Intergovernmental Committee, a group to assist in completion of the Dorey Slough drainage project, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the East Side Levee and Sanitary District City alderman's office, 1707 Madison Ave.

Present will be William "Mike" Eberhardt, president of the levee district; Louis Williams, Namekoi Township supervisor; several members of the Namekoi Town Board; and several Granite City aldermen.

They will meet with members of the Intergovernmental Committee and interested persons to explain the project and problems which have been encountered, such as easements through property near Horsehead Lake.

Maps will be displayed and discussed at the meeting. The project is being invited to attend.

The Intergovernmental Committee was formed to coordinate the slough project and work harmoniously with governmental agencies," Mrs. Helen Hawkins, spokeswoman, representative to the committee, said.

GC Rotary Inducts 6, Hears Gov. Kilborn

Joseph Kilborn of Peoria, Rotary District 666 governor, made his official visit to the Granite City Rotary Club on Tuesday. A former musician, he entertained with two trumpet solos and also spoke on four avenues of Rotary service.

Alvin H. Froehling, president, conducted the meeting and the Rotarians voted $100 for the United Fund.

Six new members were accepted into the club: Edwin Reinagel, Mercantile Mortgage Co.; Herman Schroeder, Granite City Realty; Robert Schuessler, manager, Nestle Co.; Richard Kerch, Dorn Electric Co.; Al Burrows, Tri City Grocery Co.; and Norman Jack Brider, operations manager at the W. T. Grant Co.

Youth, 16, Charged In Auto Tampering

A youth, 16, who resides in a Cottage Hills foster home was arrested at 12:45 a.m. Wednesday after allegedly being seen tampering with the auto of a resident, C. Jenkins, 3133 Lehigh Road, parked at his home.

Jenkins called police and chased the youth into Wilson Park. The youth was charged later with disorderly conduct and was taken to the foster home on a notice to appear for a hearing.

Downtown Area Truck Traffic Ban Is Tabled

A second attempt to adopt an ordinance limiting truck traffic in the downtown area was tabled by the Granite City Council Monday night as being insufficient in definition.

The tabling motion, adopted by a 12-5 vote (Alderman Parmley was absent), followed a lengthy discussion on the proposal, which was submitted without street designations or types of trucks.

In an opening attack on the ordinance, drawn by City Atty. Leon Scroggins, Fifth Ward Alderman Steve Basarich said it should include names of the streets.

Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nnon suggested "that we try it" as it is, saying that designations could follow. Sixth Ward Alderman Paul Schuler asked if the ban would include pickup trucks.

Effort to Reduce Lengthy Hearings On Steel Plant

Environmental Protection Agency hearings on alleged Granite City Steel Co. air pollution were temporarily halted this week to give attorneys for both sides further opportunity to attempt to reach points of agreement.

Hearing Examiner Samuel Lawton Jr. canceled hearings set for yesterday, today and tomorrow, indicating that attorneys were spending too much time during the hearings attempting to prove points about which both sides agreed.

Lawton emphasized that the only testimony needed in the lengthy hearings is that pertaining to points on which the two sides cannot agree.

Randall E. Robertson and Mrs. Leah Hamilton, attorneys representing the steel company, will meet next week in Chicago or Springfield with Herbert Caplin, assistant state attorney general, to attempt to trim the number of issues at dispute. A date for that meeting has not been set.

Hearings are slated for Oct. 30, 21 and 22 in the Granite City Hall.

"Get Off Ground" Scroggins said the bill was drawn purposely in that manner so that "the council could get this off the ground. The council then could designate streets and define trucks." He agreed that the ordinance in itself does nothing.

Basarich complained that "we can't do this for the people (keeping trucks out of residential neighborhoods)," and added that most downtown business men live elsewhere.

Nnon interjected that "I had 100% cooperation in the downtown area. As the attorney said, this is a test."

Schuler saw the plan as ambiguous and in need of further study. Fourth Ward Alderman Claude Green remarked: "It seems to me that they (the businessmen) would have to bring their merchandise in by pack mule."

In other action, the council approved a stop sign for Melrose Avenue at Oakland Avenue, removal of no-parking sign on Maryville Road between O'Hare Avenue and Parkway School and establishment of no-parking signs at the north end of an old cemetery at Protes Street.

Hospital Honors 56 Volunteers

At the annual auxiliary service awards dinner Monday evening, St. Elizabeth Hospital volunteers were recognized for over 51,000 hours of cumulative service. Top honors went to the auxiliary for 6,500 hours given to the hospital.

Mrs. Mary Kristian, president, introduced Mrs. Marge Wheeler, public relations director of St. Elizabeth, who said, "The volunteers are very important to the hospital and to the community. You are members of the third largest family in the Quad-Cities, for St. Elizabeth is the third largest industry."

Assistant Administrator Donald Lenz, on behalf of the hospital, said, "You are not thanked enough nor as often as you should be, but please know that your hours of service and your spirit of support are a real well known and well remembered."

Service pins were presented to the volunteers by Mrs. Gerri Weiler, volunteer director, and Lenz. The awards were given to:

Fall Academy Opens At Central Christian

This week, Central Christian Church opened its fall academy of educational courses with college styled courses offered in theology, sociology and psychology.

Dr. L. Jim Anthis, pastor, and the Rev. Russell Wigfield, associate minister, will be teaching the "contemporary theology" and "emerging church" courses and outside lecturers will lead the "religion and personality" course.

The contemporary theology course will look at 15th Century theologians and their contributions. The Course will move from Karl Barth and the German theological period to the secular, radical and hope theology of the present period. High emphasis will be placed on reading theologians.

The emerging church course is a sociological look at new forms of the church developed by Dr. Anthis, who has an earned doctorate from the University of Southern California in sociology. The course will point toward new trends of the church in all areas, from study and worship to social witness and involvement.

The religion and personality course will look at the development of an individual's personality from birth and early childhood, through adolescence and marriage and to death. Specialists in the various stages of development will be leading the sessions.

The traditional Bible study course will be held at the church, 9:25 a.m. each Sunday. Enrollment and information is available at Central Christian Church.

Engineers Want to Finish 4 Street Project Designs

Research, Planning & Design Associates recommended to the Granite City Council Monday night that it be allowed to continue through to completion the design stage on four Motor Fuel Tax street projects.

The projects are on Spring, Bremen, Ferguson and Hall Avenues. The firm said the plans are near final completion.

In a letter read to the council on disposition of the last 14 fuel tax projects, the firm listed two more, one at 24th and Center streets and the other on Bromley Avenue, which are in a state of final design, with field work completed and with state approval two to four weeks away.

The firm said that resuming design work at a later date on the two projects would be prohibitive in cost to the city.

Suggest Stop Order: A stop order on work on other projects was suggested by the firm, as little engineering has been conducted so far.

The projects include Terminal, St. Clair, Dewey, Amos and Manley Avenues and Edwards Street.

The report was made following demands by the council to learn the status of the projects, in view of the fact that city MFT funds are nearly exhausted.

The council took no action on the report, placing it on file. Third Ward Alderman Roy Poules was "against dropping the projects now."

Seventh Ward Alderman Thomas Boker suggested that the report be referred to the street and alley committee for additional study, and Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nnon immediately objected.

"All this is buck passing to street and alley. The company was told three weeks ago that we were out of money," he said.

Delay Payment: The council delayed final payment of $100,983 to G. H. Sternberg & Co. for completion of the Waterman Avenue project.

Seventh Ward Alderman Enard Daves claimed that the work is not finished. "He has not seeded the ground, and some people are doing the work themselves." The bill was referred to the two Seventh Ward aldermen.

The council approved a motion by Nnon that the two Fifth Ward aldermen meet with the Explorer Pipeline Co., which had been granted an easement to install lines along Union Street. Nnon said the company failed to properly replace the property on the levee side of the street.

Placed on file was an agreement with the state providing cooperation in accordance with policies and procedures in a Traffic Operations Program to Increase Capacity and Safety (TOPICS).

A Topics study for the city and state will cost $25,700, with the city share at 49.66% of the cost, or $14,257, and the state-federal reimbursements at 50.34%, which is $14,443.

William Gipson, 83, Boilermaker, Dies

William Lee Gipson, 83, of 1825 Rhodes St., Madison, died at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Colonial Nursing Home, Maryville, where he had been a patient for two years.

Born in Weatherford, Tex., he lived here 49 years. Mr. Gipson retired in 1957 as a boilermaker at Granite City Steel Co.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. May Gipson; one daughter, Mrs. Wilburn (Alice) Harris of Madison; two brothers, Kirby of Oklahoma and Eulas Gipson of Bent, Kan.; and four sisters, Mrs. Ruby Hellman of Houston, Tex.; Mrs. Tetta Thores of Sunset, La.; Mrs. E. H. Herring of Chickasha, Okla.; and Mrs. Ozella Gibson of Houston.

Funeral arrangements are listed in today's obituary column.

Weaver at 39 Heading Public Aid Department

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has named Edward T. Weaver, director of the Department of Public Aid to succeed Harold O. Swank, who resigned. The appointment requires Senate confirmation.

The governor commended Weaver, 39, for "exceptional administrative ability and demonstrated compassion for the needs of the poor and the underprivileged." Weaver was appointed to his former position in May 1968 by Gov. Otto Kerner.

New DeMolays Are Initiated

Seven Quad-City youths were initiated into the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, at its regular meeting Tuesday night at the Masonic Temple.

They are Thomas C. Earls, James R. Harlan, Michael J. Hendrix, Richard L. Hillman Jr., Danny E. Marks, Russell K. Pulley and Scott W. Stidman. In addition, Tim Alexander of Cahokia was initiated for the new Lewis & Clark Chapter at Cahokia.

The Flower Talk was given to the new DeMolays by Bruce Hawkins, master counselor, in the presence of members of the Mothers' Club.

Following the ceremonies, Stephen Ebrecht, master counselor-elect who presided, announced that appointed and elected junior and senior line officers will be installed in public ceremonies Nov. 6 at the Masonic Temple.

State DeMolay officers will comprise the installing team. A dance will follow.

During the meeting the chapter's participation in the United Fund Fair was discussed. In addition to a "kneet" ball booth, DeMolays were animal costumes — "Ish" the tiger, "Leo" the lion, "Bobo" the bear, and "Raggy" Andy, "Job's" Daughter Joan Young was "Raggy" Ann.

The last District 4 meeting at Edwardsville was also discussed. Paul Boyer, district master counselor, presided.

Allen Hunter of the George G. Guler Chapter of Wood River was installed as district junior counselor. Stanley Meister, district deputy, reported on a DeMolay Day for Southern Illinois.

Chuck Hileman, state master counselor, reported on the state program for the year and Dwayne Pritchett, state membership coordinator, reported on the Illinois membership program.

In attendance at the district meeting were Bill Berger, Paul Boyer, Steve Ebrecht, Mike Hickey, Chuck Hileman, Robert Hultenbeck, Ron Jones and Dwayne Pritchett.

Bowling and basketball programs were discussed. DeMolays will help serve Triple Lodge 835 annual "past masters' night" dinner on Oct. 23.

A pot luck supper was served to members and their families before the meeting.

Solicitors Warned

Three persons were taken into custody by police in the 2004 block of West Adams at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday as being unregistered solicitors. They were arrested to stop door-to-door sales until registered and were released at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, including a woman, were from East St. Louis and the other was from St. Louis.

State Petition Drive For Mayor Lindsay

The Illinois Lindsay for President committee announced yesterday a statewide petition drive to influence New York Mayor John V. Lindsay that there is sufficient grassroots support for a presidential bid among Illinois voters.

Richard M. Holzman, chairman, said, "We have collected over 30,000 signatures from Illinois voters 18 years of age and older since last April." The Lindsay group has set 100,000 Illinois signatures as its goal before Jan. 1.

That day, a delegation of Illinois voters will present the petitions to the mayor in New York City and urge him to seek the Democratic nomination for president.

Fall Meet of Church- State Group Tonight

The Southern Illinois chapter of Americans United for Separation of Church and State will sponsor "The American Dream" as a highlight of its fall Madison County St. Clair County gathering at 7:30 tonight. The program will be presented at the Westview Baptist Church, 2301 West Main St., Belleville.

The program, open to the public without charge, will be presented by the Rev. Virgil A. Kraft, former pastor of the First Methodist Church, Minneapolis.

Charged After Mishap

Humphrey Brown, 60, St. Louis, was charged with careless driving, a first offense, after he struck the curb on Broadway at Main Street in Venice at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, damaging the right front wheel and front of the auto.

Fire Prevention Week Observed

"An ounce of prevention," a sage of the past once said, "is worth a pound of cure." Recognizing the wisdom of the maxim, the state fire marshal has requested that this week be designated as Fire Prevention Week.

During the week, citizens are asked to make a special effort to eliminate the causes of fire and conditions that spread it — to check electrical wiring, get rid of combustible substances, collections of debris, and accumulations of ignitable materials.

They are alerted to their responsibilities for the preservation of both life and property, possible only with a constant battle against risks that may result in fire.

Richard B. Ogilvie, governor of Illinois, has proclaimed Oct. 3-9 as fire prevention week and is urging all citizens to "cooperate in effective community fire prevention programs to reduce the tragic toll of fire."

'Y' Swim Team Film Program on Saturday

Olivia Schroeder, Little Miss Jubilee, will attend and present a prize at a special matinee at the Washington Theatre Saturday.

The matinee will start at 10:30 a.m. Admission will be 25 cents for both children and adults. The program is sponsored by the YMCA swimming team, and all proceeds will go for a feasibility study on building a new YMCA with improved swimming facilities.

Two feature movies will be shown — an Elvis Presley film and a "shock-horror hit." Doors will open at 10 a.m.

Taxpayer Organization Will Hear Hill, Smith

Concerned Taxpayers of Madison County will hold their first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church in Wood River, at Sixth and Lovers. The program will consist of a panel of county officers: Dale Hill, county assessment official; Mrs. Leon Little, representing George Musco, county treasurer; and Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney.

Moderator will be Professor Dale Burman of Principia College. Each panel member will explain the responsibilities of his office, followed by a question period. Refreshments will be served.

School Board Approves Personnel Changes

Mrs. Ann R. Dodd, 2207 Devey Ave., was hired as a new cafeteria worker at Logan School by the Granite City School Board Monday night. Resignations of two teachers were accepted with regret by the board.

Mrs. Marcia A. Martin, an English teacher at the high school, resigned effective Dec. 22, and Miss Arleta Willenborg, a lower primary teacher at Nameoki School, requested that her resignation be effective Dec. 23.

Balloon Damages Auto

Mary Jane Heil of William John Court reported at 8 p.m. Tuesday that while she was driving east on Johnson Road at Terrace Lane, someone threw a water-filled balloon at her auto and cracked the windshield.

Mayor Concerned Over Police Use Of Sick Leaves

Long periods of police debarment sick leave led to comments by Mayor Donald Partney at a meeting of the Granite City Council Monday night.

The mayor told the council, "We have a policeman who was off duty (with a knee injury) the past nine or ten months."

"He was ordered to see a physician for a medical report. The report showed he was able to perform light duties. It was suggested that he be placed on the desk. I ordered Police Chief Ronald Vizeer to order the man back on the job on Oct. 1."

"He called in off sick on Oct. 1 and on Oct. 2. He reported for duty on Oct. 3."

"On Oct. 3, he fell out of the chair and reinjured the knee. He will come back to us with an injury on duty, and this will take another nine months."

"I don't know whether we should put seat belts on the chair."

Bill on First Reading
The council placed on first reading at a previous meeting an ordinance regulating sick leave for municipal employees. The ordinance was held back at the last meeting pending negotiations with employee representatives.

The ordinance provides that: 1. Sick leave with pay may be authorized by the department head for an on-duty injury, providing that within 90 days a physical report shall be filed with the department head for examination by any alienator or other appropriate city official.

2. The department head may require at each three-month interval such other medical reports as he may deem necessary. 3. For off-duty injuries, the city employee concerned shall not be entitled to sick leave.

Two Madison Men Hurt In Highway Accident

Charles Voloski, 21, of 1610 Seventh St., Madison, and James Taylor, 22, of 2038 Harris Ave., Madison, were injured in an accident early Wednesday on State Aid Route 35 near Sandy Lake when their auto overturned.

They were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where Taylor was admitted for observation. He had pains to the right shoulder, bleeding nose and mouth and lacerations above the left eye.

Voloski suffered pains to the left leg and thigh, head and neck and abrasions to the left hand and right knee. He was released following x-rays.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT. Miss Donna Lee Julian, whose engagement to David R. Polivick has been announced.

Visit Amana 'Oktober Fest'

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Doyle, 2245 Washington Ave., attended the 3-day "Oktober Fest" of the Amana colonies at Amana, Iowa during the weekend.

The annual observance is centered at the seven Amana villages, established over 100 years ago, where people of German descent reside.

The celebration included stage shows, parades and displays of arts and crafts made by the residents. A variety of food and drink was offered the visitors who were entertained with music by a German band.

Among the highlights of the "Oktober Fest," the local couple reported, was an exhibition of furniture constructed from various types of wood by the villagers. Visitors may order the handmade items in styles and colors to suit their individual tastes, the Doyles said.

150 at Amvet 51 Italian Dinner

Checkered table cloths, colorful candles in wine bottles and similar accoutrements transformed the Amvets Post 51 clubhouse into an Italian restaurant during the weekend for the veterans' organization's annual spaghetti dinner party.

About 150 Amvets, auxiliary members and their guests attended the event. The food was prepared and served by women of the auxiliary.

Accordian music for dancing and listening was played by Keith Sevada of Granite City, whose selections reflected the Italian theme. The musician recently won first prize in a music festival at Topeka, Kans., in which many top artists from Missouri and Illinois competed.

Cubs Enjoy Hike, Collect Leaves

Scouts from Den 1, Cub Pack 11, sponsored by the Tri-City Bar Association, enjoyed a hike during the weekend at Cahokia Mounds State Park where they collected leaves for their scrapbooks and held a wienner roast.

Those taking part were Joseph Doroghazi, Danny Johnson, Kevin and Keith Grady, Daniel Hopkins, Mark Lallent, David Williams, Steven Briggs, Mark Barnes and visitors, Craig Pilger, Danny Lallent and Lori Conrod.

Den mothers, Mrs. Audrey Conrod and Mrs. Barbara Lallent, were assisted in the activities by Mrs. Melba Grady, Mrs. Mary Pilger, Ray Lallent and Tommy Doroghazi.

Present Painting to Gov. Ogilvie

During Illinois Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's visit to the area last week, members of the Granite City Republican Women's Service League presented the state's chief executive and his wife with an original painting.

The presentation, made by Mrs. Carol Meek, president of the local GOP women's group, took place at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus, where the governor ad-

Donna Lee Julian Is Bride-Elect

The engagement of Miss Donna Lee Julian, a daughter of Mrs. Verna Julian, 1635 Minerva Ave., and Clinton H. Julian, 4660 Lake Drive, to David R. Polivick is announced this week.

The prospective groom is the son of Mrs. Murrell Polivick, 2649 Grand Ave., and the late John H. Polivick.

Miss Julian is a junior at SIU-SW, majoring in special education. She was graduated from Granite City High School in 1969.

Mr. Polivick attends Belleville Township Junior College. Also a 1969 graduate of Granite City High School, he is a volunteer worker with Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City and is employed at Viviano's Supermarket.

Plans are being completed for a spring wedding.

Past Matrons Plan Yule Party

Plans for a Christmas party at the Round Table restaurant in Collinsville on Dec. 6 for members of the Past Matrons Club of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, were completed at a meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Virginia John, 4062 Sara St.

A brief business meeting was conducted, followed by games, with prizes going to Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Mary Ellen Lewis and Mrs. Mary Ellen Lewis.

Others attending were Mesdames Karmyn Edmonds, Arlene Fox, Clara Harbig, Bess Henley, Sadie Jones and a guest, Mrs. Molly Hudson.

The next meeting will be Nov. 1 in the home of Mrs. Henley.

BROWNIE TROOP 524 LEARNS KNOT TYING

Brownie Troop 524, sponsored by Niedringhaus PTJA, met at the school, with members instructed on tying square knots.

The meeting opened with the Brownie Frontise and "Smile" song. Roll call was taken by Beth Callis. "Brownie Gold" was collected and deposited in a bank made by the scouts. After individual practice the girls held outdoor relay races.

Attending were Vicki Koester, Mary Brandt Stephanie Shank, Beth McNeilly, Simone Ashal, Kim Ross, Jani Miller, Laura Maddox, Peggy Vizer, Lori Deterding, Melissa Keltner, Shannon Bushue, Melissa Smith, Beth Callis, Nancy Nolan and Karen Kalkbrenner and the co-leaders, Mrs. Marsha Bushue and Mrs. Marlene Ross.

BETROTHED. Miss Judy Pogorelac, whose engagement to John S. Kulasza is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pogorelac, 716 Iowa St., Madison.

Kulasza-Pogorelac Engagement

The engagement of Miss Judy Pogorelac and John S. Kulasza, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kulasza, 1649 Seventh St., Madison, was informally announced this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pogorelac, 716 Iowa St., Madison.

Both young people are graduates of Madison High School. Miss Pogorelac graduated from SIU-SW this year and is a seventh grade mathematics teacher at Lindbergh's Middle School.

Mr. Kulasza graduated from St. Joseph's Seminary in Chicago and is presently employed in the Madison County sheriff's department.

Plans are being completed for a wedding next summer at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison.

Mangs Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mang, 2608 Jarden Ave., were honored during the weekend with a surprise party in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Held at their home, the affair was hosted by the couple's five children, Jim, Ron and Tom Mang and Misses Gloria and Sharon Mang.

Silver and white decorations were used extensively about the room and the refreshment table held a two-tiered wedding cake and silver appointments. Gifts were presented the honored guests who were married at St. Joseph Catholic Church on Oct. 5, 1946.

Among the well-wishers were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mang and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Mang and son, Mrs. Ann Cicio, Mrs. Angela Scaturro, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartzel, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Mang, Mrs. Julie Kukarala, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Phillips, Mrs. Mary Vaughn, Mrs. Jean Scaturro and son, Frankie, Bob Harshany and Miss Kathy Jones.

A weekend home-fashione style show was held at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Those who modeled were Heather Skubish, Elizabeth and Eric Wilson, Jeanie, Lucy, and Sherri Holt, Mary Lou Metcalf, Dana Harris, Lynn Jeffries, Amanda Baugh, Mary and Stephanie Brandt, Susan Seilheimer, Kathy Gusewelle, Cheryl Gertsch, Cindy and Linda Treadwell, Barbara Williams and Mesdames Judi Swift, Kathy Jeffries, Jane Ann Seilheimer, Sharon Gusewelle, Joyce Harris, Edna Jones, Mary Gresham, Kathryn A. Treadwell, Fran Holt, Janet Wilson and Burl Treadwell.

Assisting with tickets and refreshments was Mrs. Anne Slate. Miss Gayle Dion served as organist.

Proceeds will go to the sanctuary building.

DETTWILERS NAME FIRST CHILD JENNIFER DIANE

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dettwiler, 2444 Wilson Ave., became the parents of a daughter Oct. 1 at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis. She weighed eight pounds, 14 ounces, and has been named Jennifer Diane. The couple has a son, Neil Douglas, two years old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love of Granite City and Mrs. William F. Dettwiler of Troy, Ill. The mother is the former Diane Love.

Coast Guardsman Feted at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abel were hosts at a party this week honoring their son, Seaman Jim Abel, who is home on leave from duty with the U.S. Coast Guard.

Guests were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ross, 41 Riviera Drive.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hundley, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Lakin, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. John Koester, Mr. and Mrs. James Todd, Mr. and Mrs. David Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Powers, Tom Sleska, Garland Ledbetter, Alan Koester, Carolyn Schneider, Barry Koester, Danny Abel, Orville Abel, Elroy Paschedag, Robert Garland, Gary Wrischuk and Mrs. Vera Schilling.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hinkle and children, Carol and Beck, of Troy, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weber of Baldwin, Mo.

The serviceman arrived here from Alameda, Calif., and will remain at home until Oct. 14 when he will report to the Coast Guard base at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Home Sewn Styles At Benefit Show

Warrior-Alton Game to Top League Card on Saturday

The Granite City High School Football Warriors travel to Alton, to meet the defending Southwestern Conference champion Redbirds for a grid contest at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The Redbirds have again been rated by sports polls as the number one team in the area, but apparently some one forgot to take a good look at the East St. Louis Flyers, who defeated Alton last week 18-6.

In 1969 Alton and East St. Louis tied for the top spot in the conference, and last year the Redbirds went 6-0 (won-loss) in Conference and 10-0 overall.

A contributing factor to Alton's loss to the Flyers was a Bobby Everage, 5-7, 170, a halfback for the Redbirds, was hurt in the Chicago Austin game. Everage, a second-year letterman, was named All-District and All-State last season as he scored 19 touchdowns, made 120 points and gained more than 1,154 yards. Unfortunately for the Warriors it appears that Everage will be playing in Saturday's game.

Last Year's Score
The only Warrior defeat last season came at the hands of Alton, 15-13.

The Redbirds won their first two games this season beating Wood River 40-12, and then Chicago Austin 26-8.

In addition to Everage, a second problem for the Warrior defense will be fullback Randy Connors, a veteran 185-pounder, who was the Redbirds' second biggest ground gainer last season. Connors blasted his way over 500 yards, scored eight TDs and four extra points.

Craig Matthews, 6-4, 175 senior, will be starting at quarterback and Niel Lockhart, 5-10, 165 sophomore will be at right half.

Redbird Offense

Redbird defensive starters include Dan Ewing, 165, left end; Bob Naughton, 220, left tackle; Larry Spears, 190, left inside linebacker; and Ken Casley, 175, right inside linebacker; Steve Shust, 185, right tackle; David Wallace, 170, right end; Kim Shearburn, 175, left outside linebacker, and a Brian Joehl, 165, right outside linebacker.

Don Ewing, 165, and Mike Rainer, 185, will be the defensive halfbacks. Paul Willis, 160, will be the defensive safety.

Alton's offensive line averages 198.2 pounds and its backs 178.3. "There will be some definite changes in our lineup," Warrior Coach Wayne Williams said, "but these won't be known until after Friday's practice. "Not only will we be making changes, the Warriors will be a different ball club mentally and physically. In my 14 years of coaching, last week's game against Collinsville was the poorest exhibition of blocking I have ever seen. We were out-hustled from the beginning."

"Alton has an outstanding backfield, led by Everage, who was out of action against East St. Louis, but we will have to face him. Their line is just so-so. If we can stop them from the long run, we can beat them."

"Alton is a good team, and so are we. We have a good club, but they were coasting along on reputation last week and forgot that in football you have to prove you're good every time you take the field."

'DINO' WATCHES SOCCER BALL. Little John "Dino" Deinoski, Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's clever ball-control artist, eludes a Rockhurst College defensive player in a 5-2 victory over the Kansas City School. Dino scored the game's first goal and also gained two assists by passing off to teammates. SIU-SW is now 3-0 for the season.

Soccer Cougars Roll, Face Chicago Saturday

The fast-rolling soccer team at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, fifth-ranked nationally, will host an upset-minded University of Illinois Chicago Circle team at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the local Cougar field.

The Cougars, out to increase their undefeated skid to four games this season, have defeated the Windy City team in three years of play though the game has been close each time.

Playing an important role in the rapidly growing interest in soccer in this area is the play of the Cougars' little outside right, John "Dino" Deinoski. In last Saturday's 5-2 SIU-SW victory over Kansas City's Rockhurst College, Dino was at his best. The crowd loved every minute of it, starting with his goal, the first of the game, and continuing as he fed off passes to teammates John Caranza and Tom Twellman as they scored a goal each. Caranza, the sophomore star, accounted for the Cougars' other two goals as he scored twice in a little over one minute to put SIU-SW out in front in the second period.

This was the third straight time this season that the Cougars had turned back an undefeated foe. Rockhurst came into the game with a 3-0 record, Ottawa University had been 3-0 before losing to SIU-SW, 2-0, and the University of Akron was 3-0 before bowing to Coach Bob Guelker's charges, 4-2.

Waterfowl Hunting Season Nears, Point System Listed

Copley News Service
SPRINGFIELD—A great deal of confusion exists among waterfowl hunters this year. The main concerns are the point system used in Illinois to establish daily limits and the new goose hunting permit.

Some area waterfowl hunters are still not aware of the new state law requiring every goose hunter to obtain a permit from the state to hunt geese regardless of where he hunts in Illinois. The Illinois duck season is from Oct. 23 to Dec. 11.

The daily limit is based on a point system allowing each hunter 100 points. He may shoot any combination of ducks, until he has reached the total, then he must leave the blind for another day.

It's important that each duck hunter knows what the point evaluations are. As an example, canvasbacks and readheads are rated as 100 points each. This means if the hunter shoots one of either of these species of ducks he has shot his daily limit.

90-Point Ratings
Rated at 90 points each are mallard hens, black ducks, wood ducks and hooded mergansers. Such ducks as mallard drakes, pintails and ring-necked ducks are rated at 20 points each.

All other ducks are listed at 10 points each. It's up to each duck hunter to know what the point evaluations are and to keep track of his own points. This daily limit will be strictly enforced this year. Last year the state of Illinois' tried the point system for the first time.

The state's field personnel advised that it would take time for hunters to become acquainted with the system. Often the hunter was given the benefit of the doubt when he was in strict enforcement of the law.

The Illinois duck season runs concurrent with the duck season. The daily limit was set at 15 with a possession limit of 30 in effect. Illinois has a new law this year requiring each hunter er planning to hunt geese anywhere in state obtain an Illinois goose hunting permit.

These permits are free and can be obtained by writing either the Springfield office or the Chicago office of our Illinois Department of Conservation. The goose hunting permit is divided in two. At the end of the season the hunter must tear off one portion of the permit, fill it out, and return it to the state office.

This report must be filled out and mailed within 24 hours after the close of the goose season. Such information as number of geese killed during the season and in what counties they were taken are the required details. These permits are designed to give the Department of Conservation valuable information of the goose flight through Illinois plus concentrations across the state. Even though the permit is free, it's required just as a hunting license and waterfowl stamp.

Concurrent Seasons
The goose season in Illinois is concurrent with the duck season, from Oct. 23 to Dec. 11. The only exceptions are in the counties of Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson which have an opening of Nov. 15, and will be closed to goose hunting when a quota of 24,000 geese is reached.

Limits this year consist of two Canadian geese a day and four in possession or two white necked geese a day and two in possession. Hunters who plan to hunt Illinois areas for geese can apply for their permit by writing to our Illinois Department of Conservation, Room 164, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62766.

A $5 daily usage stamp must be purchased by each hunter planning to hunt on state goose shooting areas. They are attainable at the site.

All persons who are 16 years of age or over are required to have a federal migratory waterfowl hunting stamp if they intend to hunt waterfowl this year requiring each hunter

Trojans Travel to Sparta Friday; Both Teams Winless

Press-Record Sports
Page 8 Thurs., Oct. 7, 1971

When the Madison Trojans travel to meet the Sparta Bulldogs at 8 p.m. Friday, both teams will be looking for their first wins of the current football season.

The Bulldogs had an overall 3-5 (won-loss) record and a Southwest Egyptian Conference record of 2-4 last year. In three games this season they have gone scoreless, losing to Madison 35-0, DuQuoin 33-0 and Nashville 22-0.

Chuck Keen, who has been the head football mentor at Sparta for the past six years, has had some injury problems.

Steve Blind, a returning letterman who would have been playing right half, was injured in practice a week before the season began and is still out.

Bulldog Formations
Fans can expect the Bulldogs to run the T-formation on offense, running from the "Wing" and "I" as secondary offensive maneuvers. Their basic defense is the "62", using occasionally a "split six", a "wide tackle" and running a "32" defense. The two teams have not played each other for the past several years. The schools are about equal in size; Sparta has 680 students with 74 out for football; MHS has 625 students and 60 out for football.

Coach Keene scouted the Madison vs. Robinson game and said he was pleased with what he saw, both in football and in the fans. "Madison has a young team this season, needing only experience to improve. I'm looking forward to playing this year and in the future. Being about the same size schools we should have some interesting football," Keene told the Press-Record.

Sparta Scouted
At Vander Haar, head coach for MHS said, "I scouted Sparta at the Nashville game, and they are a lot better than their score indicated. Nashville scored twice in the first three minutes of play, and Sparta held them to only one touchdown for better than three quarters."

"They have been hurt a little with injuries, but not really that much. We haven't had any injuries yet. Our boys haven't got that involved in a game to get hurt."

"We play good ball for three downs and then they have to rest for one, and that one is when we get hurt."

"Football can be an unkind sport, when you have a spare senior class you hurt for two years. It's a phase of football that all schools hit every so often."

"If we can retain the kids we got next year we should show much improvement, and even better in the '73 season. We have some tough freshmen, sophomores and juniors, but it really takes seniors to win," Canestain.

"We're working every day on the fundamentals of the game, and when the team begins to understand them we'll start moving. This is basically immaturity. It's really just a matter of time before they shape up and play ball," Vander Haar commented.

Roger Gerlach, 6-1, 205, sophomore, who played end until last week, will play his first game as a quarterback for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldog offensive backfield will include Gerlach; Greg Batton, 5-10, 183 senior, left half; David St. James, 5-6, 135 junior, right half.

On the line for Sparta will be Brad Reid, 6-1, 204 junior, right guard; Don Theobald, 5-9, 217 senior, left guard; Bob Veath, 5-11, 187 senior, right tackle; Leon Davis, 6-2, 225 senior, left tackle; Kevin McMichael, 6-0, 172 senior, right end; and Randy Valle, 5-11, 170 junior, left end.

Most of the Bulldogs play both offense and defense, but the defense also will see the following: Brad Pigg, 5-8, 155 senior, halfback; Don Roun-tree, 6-1, 267, senior guard; and Rich Whittenborn, 6-0, 160 junior, end.

Makes Fresh Team
Richard Moore, 1971 Granite City High School graduate, is on the freshman football team at Illinois State University. He is a 6-7, 247-pound tackle.

Warrior Kickers Blast Gibault; Kahoks Today

The Warrior soccer squad literally blasted Gibault of Waterloo 8-2 Tuesday at Wilson Park to leave Granite City High School's soccer record unblemished with two wins and no losses.

After taking a 4-0 lead in the first eight minutes of the game, Coach John Selmeier began cleaning the reserve bench, giving 26 men an opportunity to play, even several who have had no experience and only a few weeks practice.

Despite the rookies on the field, the Warriors managed to monopolize the game, keeping the ball in their half of the field about 85% of the time.

The first Warrior point came three minutes into the game when Perry Dillard passed to Jim Forrester in front of the goal and Forrester booted it in. Two minutes later Jerry Duncan picked up a pass from Bill Brombauer and scored from the edge of the penalty area. Jim Conway gained the third goal, on a pass from Carl Duke, which he blasted in during a full-steam charge from the left side.

Shortly after the Warrior rookies took the field, Rich Kern of Gibault took a pass from the right side and hit the lower left corner of Granite City's net as Glenn Williams, goalie, made a futile attempt to stop it.

Still in the first half, Paul Jungels picked up a pass from Forrester to beat the goalie for Granite City's fourth point. With seconds left in the first half, Brombauer passed to Randy Worthen who scored. At halftime the Warriors led 5-1.

Early in the second period Gibault had the ball long enough to score but the Warriors quickly rallied to resume control. Forrester booted a penalty kick which was deflected by the goalie but remained in the net for the sixth point.

The seventh came from the toe of Jim Conway on a pass from behind the net shows Gibault's goalie making a lunge for the speeding ball. The Warriors won the game 8-2.

Swan Qualifies for Lifeguard Service

Robert Swan, 3407 Franklin Ave., is one of 79 students to qualify for a unique pool lifeguard service at the University of Illinois.

They recently passed a written exam and completed a four-hour workshop in special skills, including resuscitation techniques and the use of a spine-board for neck, back and head injuries.

Lifeguards work up to 15 paid hours a week and must be present whenever a pool is used. The U. of I. Lifeguard Service is the only one in any university in the nation.

from Brombauer, and Brombauer picked up the final score on a pass from Duncan.

The Warriors will host Collinsville at 4 p.m. today at Wilson Park. The Kahoks defeated Gibault Friday 3-1 in the season opener for both teams.

Freeman, Chaps To Meet Mets At Greenville

Don Freeman, former star at Madison High School and the University of Illinois, will appear with the Dallas Chaparrals in an American Basketball Association exhibition game against the New York Mets at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Greenville College.

Freeman is rated as one of the best guards in pro basketball. Since his college days, he has four times been an ABA All-Star and three-times All-Pro selection.

He came to the Chaparrals midway through last season from the Utah Stars. In 31 of 42 games with Dallas, he scored 20 or more points, and on 10 occasions had better than 30.

He helped shove the Chaps in the play-offs for the fourth successive year.

Bus Trips to Blues Home Games Offered

Eleven seats are available for ticket-holders to the St. Louis Blues home games on a special bus chartered by the Granite City Park District. Round trips will be made to the St. Louis Arena for all home contests, departing from the Wilson Park pavilion at 6:30 p.m., Harold Brown, park superintendent said.

Individuals pay $1.15 per trip. Brown stressed that only bus seating is available and not admission tickets to the Blues games. Reservations may be placed by calling 877-3059.

Speed Skating Club To Begin 4th Season

The Gateway Speed Skating Club will begin its fourth season of workouts at the Granite City Ice Rink on Sunday from 10 a.m. to noon. Those interested in watching the workout, or who wish information pertaining to speed skating, are welcome to attend.

Competition is designed to accommodate the beginner as well as the experienced skater, in a wide variety of age groups.

Generally, skaters are under contract to a Skating Association sanctioned club, which provides coaching and additional time on the ice.

"Through the years, this has been found to be the best method of developing skaters," Walter Bruch, 2731 Michigan Ave., commented.

"However, ice time and adequate coaching are available in this area for anyone who wishes to participate."

The Gateway Club has been conducting a physical conditioning program since late August. The training sessions are held each Monday and Thursday and begin at 5:45 p.m. in front of the Wilson Park Ice rink.

As in the past, participation in conditioning sessions is not limited to club members. The workouts will continue until the end of October.

News Notes

for new services by such clinics.

A 708 Board delegation which included Wend River Assistant Supervisor Wayne Bridgewater apparently obtained incomplete or inaccurate information in a visit to Springfield. Some of those who made the trip blame the clinics rather than the state for the cutback, and Bridgewater talked of being "led up" as part of "a devious scheme" by clinics.

Orville Hodge, 66, Granite City, former state auditor, filed suit Tuesday in the Circuit Court at Springfield for restoration of his real estate broker's license, revoked when he was convicted of misuse of state funds. He served from 1956 to 1963 and was paroled on probation; the latter ending in 1968. The suit followed denial of a request for the license by the Department of Registration and Education.

There will be no regular mail window or delivery service on Columbus Day Oct. 11 or Veterans' Day Oct. 23.

An Oct. 15 deadline has been set by Madison County for township assessors to turn in their listings of personal property for the 1971 tax year (1972 collection).

Those whose status has changed or who are uncertain of how they are listed are being urged to contact Quad-City assessors.

An example is a young man who previously lived with his parents and had no exemption because he was not the head of the household, he should so inform his assessor so that the assessment can be deleted on his furniture and one of his autos.

Restraining Order Issued In City Railroad Ordinance

U. S. District Judge Omar Poon yesterday issued a temporary injunction restraining the City of Granite City from enforcing an ordinance designed to limit the length of freight trains.

He acted at a hearing Wednesday in Springfield and set a trial date for the suit, filed by eight railroads, of Dec. 22 at Alton.

Dog Control Act Adopted in Venice

The Venice City Council adopted a new dog control ordinance during its meeting Tuesday night.

The measure requires that dogs be licensed, collared and inoculated by June 1 of each year. The license fee is $3 for unspayed females and $1 for others, and the fee will be waived if an inoculation certificate is presented before June 1.

Owner of a dog involved in a biting case is required to notify the county rabies inspector and have the dog quarantined by a veterinarian.

Dogs found running loose or creating a nuisance will be impounded, with the owner subject to a $3 release fee and a fine. The ordinance protects the public from abuse. Penalties include fines not to exceed $100.

Construction Permits

In other council business: Three building permits for garages were approved for Thomas W. Foley, 117 Broadway; Don McGee, 1241 Robin St.; and Melvin Andrews, 1306 Robin St.

The McKinley Toll Bridge report for September showed a traffic of 7,267.

Third Ward Alderman John Ervin complimented the city street department for keeping weeds cut and signs up and in proper location.

The Rev. Terry Shea, pastor of St. Mark's Catholic Church, issued an invitation to city officials to participate at a Memorial Mass to be held at 6 p.m. Monday.

dations to its electric plant of $67 million while reports to the FPC showed the additions totaled $26 million.

In 1969, said the company, total stockholders that the additions were $105 million and the FPC was $27 million.

Building Costs Compared

Davies' testimony was challenged by Frank Koborst, an accountant who said projections of construction have exceeded actual expenditures. Koborst said that in 1957 the company proposed a $168 million, five-year construction plan, five-year construction plan but that only $96 million was spent.

The proposed rate increase involves an estimated $700 million construction plan for the next five years. Asked whether the estimate may be high, Davies responded that the company's estimates have "practically never" been under actual construction costs.

Robertson said the present rate increase also is based on construction in 1970 in which the utility's plant increased by 40%, and that in the ten-year period from 1959 to 1969 the total net increase was 31%.

20 Firms Represented

Robertson is representing 20 companies in the power users' group. Industries in the group include American Steel Foundries, Consolidated Aluminum Products, Laclede Steel Co., Lippert Steel Products, Marshall Division of Miles Laboratories, Nestle Co., NI Industries and A. O. Smith Corp.

Other industries in the group are located in Alton, Belleville, Decatur and Galesburg.

Hearing Examiner Robert Blalock scheduled additional hearings for Oct. 15-22 and Nov. 1-5. A third session may be held in December.

The power users in the group use an estimated $9 million worth of electric power annually.

When you feed in the Fall you help Nature do its thing!

Independent surveys taken last spring revealed that 4 out of 5 standout lawns were fed the previous Fall. The findings were not surprising, since Fall is the one time when Nature puts all the odds in your favor—temperature, moisture and the tendency of grass to send out new side shoots and roots in Fall.

Best thing you can do to take advantage of this unique time of year is to fertilize with TURF BUILDER. Turf Builder is made by an exclusive process that enables it to release its nutrients as the grass needs them. So there's no spindly surge growth to cause extra mowing. Instead Turf Builder encourages root and side shoot growth. Makes your lawn grow thicker, greener and sturdier.

Rotary Anns Picnic at Meng Farm

Mrs. Jessie Meng was hostess to members of the Rotary Ann Club at a noon picnic held Tuesday on the lawn of the Meng farm near Edwardsville. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Mignon Abenroth, Lois Adams and Ellen Aubrey.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Carme Froemling, followed by Mrs. Meng presenting each member with an arrangement of bitersweet.

Those present were Mesdames Ruth Polson, Lois Winter, Barbara Thoele, Lorraine Decatur, Clara Huber, Margaret

Smith, Corrine Schuenke, Jean Van Metre, Lois Adams, Jackie Reinagel, Dorothy Shelton, Mary Wilkins, Jo Ann Kraus and Delores Smith. Three guests attending were Mrs. Margie Smith of Tallahoma, Tenn., Mrs. Helen Broadway, a former member who now resides in California, and Mrs. Ella Kilton of Peoria, Ill., wife of the Rotary district governor. The next meeting will have a "show and tell" theme and will be held in the home of Mrs. Evelyn Ackerman, 2908 State St., Nov. 2.

MR. AND MRS. JERRY L. GREGORY, who were married Oct. 2 in Hillsboro, Ill. The bride is the former Miss Deborah L. Mathenia, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathenia of Coffeen, formerly of Granite City.

Miss Deborah Mathenia Is Married at Hillsboro

Miss Deborah L. Mathenia of Coffeen, Ill., formerly of Granite City, became the bride of Jerry L. Gregory of Hillsboro in ceremonies Oct. 2 at Calvary Baptist Church, Hillsboro. The Rev. Ray Elam officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Ronnie Lockwood, soloist, sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the organ by William Ross.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathenia of Coffeen. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Gregory, reside in Hillsboro.

Escorted by her father, the bride chose a white gown of boned rose lace over satin featuring a butterfly train and white satin bow at the back waist.

Her waist-length veil of illusion was secured with a rose crown, accented with pearls and sequins, and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Miss Sandra New was maid of honor and Miss Sherri Osborn, bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of pink satin, the skirts overlaid with pink chiffon accented with bows at the back waistlines. Each carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations.

Crystal Gregory, the flower girl, wore a frock of similar design in blue and carried a basket of rose petals. John Mathenia was ring bearer.

Don Burdette served the groom as best man and groomsman was Sergeant John Merritt. Tom Mathenia, a brother of the bride and Paul Pickel were ushers.

Guests were entertained at a reception following the ceremony in the church, social rooms. Assisting were Mrs.

Carrie Porter, Mrs. Paula Goodin, Sherry Mathenia and Susan Gregory. Susan and Tammy Gregory, sisters of the groom, presided at the gift table.

Mrs. Mathenia wore a lilac double knit dress and Mrs. Gregory was attired in a mint green double-knit suit. Both wore white carnation corsages.

The former Miss Mathenia is a graduate of Hillsboro High School. Mr. Gregory is employed at Eagle Picher Co. He also was graduated from Hillsboro High School.

The newly-married couple will reside in the Hillcrest Addition at Hillsboro.

Alton Guests at Veterans Meeting

Two guests from Alton, J. M. Campbell and Mrs. Inez Lenhart, attended a noon pot luck luncheon and meeting of Veterans of World War I, Madison Barracks 34 and Auxiliary, held Tuesday at the VFW Hall.

Mrs. Grace Branding was chairman of the dinner attended by 30 members.

Various reports were given by the officers, including a report on the national convention held last month in Houston, Tex., submitted by Mrs. Mary Breidenbach.

Also announced was information on a 4th District meeting to be held at the VFW Post, in Edwardsville Oct. 17, opening with a 12:30 pot-luck luncheon. All members were urged to attend.

Mrs. Eva Durham and Mrs. Mathilda Reither will be co-hostesses at the November session.

SOCIETY

DAV Auxiliary to Mail Yule Gifts

The Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary plans to mail Christmas boxes to servicemen in Vietnam and holiday greeting cards to all servicemen whose name appears on the Yule Mail list. It was announced last night at a meeting of the group.

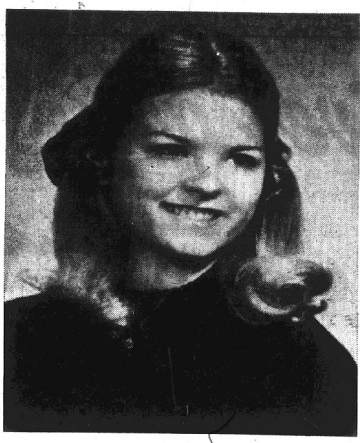

Commander June Scherger presided at the business session, attended by nine members. Plans also were made to send donations to Carville and the Freedoms Foundation. Two members will spend Friday as volunteer workers at Jefferson Barracks Hospital.

Mrs. Louise Schleiff and Mrs. Bertha Kieckhefer, co-hostesses for the meeting, served refreshments. A prize was awarded to Mrs. Schleiff. The DAV chapter will hold a social meeting Oct. 20.

3 GC Men Arrested Following Burglaries

Three Granite City men were arrested on theft charges at 2 a.m. Tuesday in connection with two house burglaries during the night.

Facing two counts each are Bobby Baker, 41, of 726 Twenty-seventh Place; Jerry Carney, 24, of 407 Kirkpatrick Homes; and Jimmie Fred Ray, 34, of 2428 Madison Ave.

They were taken into custody at 208 Kirkpatrick Homes after police had obtained warrants. Some items there were confiscated, police said.

They pleaded innocent Tuesday afternoon before Associate Judge William Johnson, who set bonds at $20,000 each. They were taken to the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville.

Nu Zeta Chapter Plans Rush Night

Prospective members of the Nu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will be invited to a rush party Oct. 26 in the home of Donna Kagy, 4054 Stearns Ave.

Plans for the party were completed Tuesday evening at the Nu Zeta Chapter meeting. Fran Cuvier, chapter president, was in charge of the business session.

A report was submitted on the group's "Charity Days" booth and tentative plans were made to participate in next year's event. A donation of $50 was sent to the St. Elizabeth Hospital's Day Mental Health Clinic for the purchase of needed equipment.

The members also agreed to work as volunteers in the "hot meal on wheels" program sponsored by Protestant Welfare, which provides hot meals to the ill and elderly who are confined at home.

A brief discussion was held on a Christmas party.

Mrs. Marilyn Lumpkins gave the cultural program based on the subject, "Self Estimate."

Mrs. Cook served a dessert course and those named to Mesdames Donna Kagy, Linda McKeachan, Shirley Worster, Phyllis Kubelka and Shirley Farmlay.

PLAN LESSON ON PSALMS
"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases, who redeemeth thy life from destruction." This text from Psalms will highlight the Bible lesson-lesson, "Are Sin, Disease and Death Really?" at the 10-15 a.m. service Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2580 Delmar Ave.

182,000 in State Junior Colleges

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service
Springfield—Unofficial "head-count" figures indicate a continuing rise in state junior college enrollments throughout Illinois.

Dr. Fred Wellman, executive secretary of the Illinois Junior College Board, said the unofficial figures received by his office to date indicate 180,000 students enrolled on campuses of locally controlled junior college districts, with another 2,400 enrolled at State Community College in East St. Louis, which is state controlled.

Of these students, an estimated 103,500 are full time equivalent students enrolled in the 36 locally controlled districts with approximately 1,300 full time equivalent students at State Community College.

Actual enrollment figures, expected to be available by the end of the week, will probably be somewhat higher than the estimates, Dr. Wellman said, since the estimates are based on advance enrollments and do not include all adult education and evening courses.

For the fall term in 1970, there was a total enrollment of 169,561 students, of whom 94,617 were full time equivalent students.

Feasibility studies are currently being conducted in several areas of the state, Dr. Wellman said, preliminary to possible referendum votes on establishment of new junior college districts.

Though there are some scattered pockets throughout the state which are not included in junior college districts, the main bulk of areas without junior college districts lies in a broad belt through the center of the state. Voters in Decatur a few days ago approved formation of the Maconland Junior College District there.

In other areas of business, Dr. Wellman said the staff is continuing with meetings on a recent proposal by Gov. Richard Ogilvie that the state assume 100% of construction costs at the junior colleges, in return for complete control of the building programs.

The staff has recommended

Music World's John Denver Brings Dreams to Maturity

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

Several years ago, a young writer named John Denver had the good fortune to write a genuine No. 1 hit song called "Leaving on a Jet Plane."

Ironically enough, even though Denver recorded "Leaving" on his first album, "Rhymes and Reasons," the song didn't become a million seller till Peter, Paul and Mary released it as a single.

However, almost four years later and even older, there has emerged an extraordinary young man with a mind full of wonderment and a heart full of soft, soothing sounds.

Denver works his lives, by the philosophy that "music is not so much a form of entertainment, but a life-style of people, such as Woodstock."

And he expresses his intense feelings in his latest album for RCA called "Poems, Prayers and Promises."

John's kind of music, with which you can live intimately, seems to be the work of a person who has brought to maturity the delights of his childhood and his dreams for the future.

Quickly becoming known as one of America's foremost balladeers, John grew up in an Air Force family and received his formal education in schools all over the country.

For years, he entertained thoughts of being a pilot like his father, who holds three records in military aviation.

However, John was bitten by the music bug and, while in college at Texas Tech, he became deeply immersed in the folk music mania.

His first guitar lessons were taken on an old 1910 Gibson, given to him when he was just a child by his grandmother.

It wasn't long till he had mastered both the 6-string and 12-string guitars well enough to try his luck on the West Coast.

Knowing that there wasn't time for both his music and a career as an architect, he left Texas to gig for a while at a number of small California clubs.

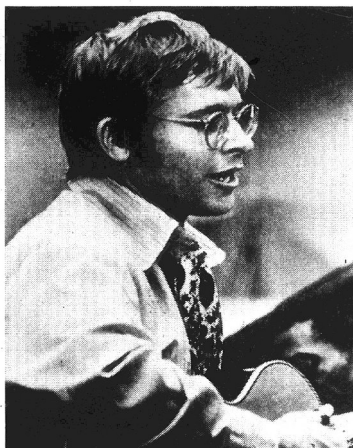

Eventually he landed a spot at Leadbetter's in Los Angeles, with Randy Sparks, the well-known folk impresario.

Then he outlasted 250 applicants for top man in Chad Mitchell's Trio when Chad split.

After working for a little over four years with the group, Denver decided to take a crack on his own as a single performer.

He now has four albums recorded for RCA and his latest single, "Take Me Home, Country Roads," is climbing the national charts at a steady rate.

Although John has been

JOHN DENVER. "... Music is a life-style of people."

somewhat overlooked by the avid rock fans, he has become one of the hottest performers on the college concert circuit. He says his concert format is actually his first two albums sung and played in order.

"The first album, 'Rhymes and Reasons,' is light, airy and makes up the get-acquainted portion of the show," he said.

"And the second album, 'Take Me to Tomorrow,' contains songs that have a heavier and more definite message to them. This is the post intermission section of the performance."

One reason for his success with the college scene is perhaps the fact that he "doesn't want to entertain people... I want to touch them."

And touch them he does as he tours throughout the state singing his songs of life and love and beautiful things.

Listening to John sing, you get a quiet affirmation of his enormous skill in music that will linger in your mind and come back at unforeseen times, like all good music has a habit of doing.

As for his personal life, John is happily married to the former Ann Martell, whom he met during a concert with the Mitchell Trio at a Minnesota college.

Even with a heavy road schedule, he finds time for all types of sports. In addition to painting, he is a do-it-yourselfer around the house, digs on motorcycles and is as much involved in the world itself as his songs indicate.

It seems that this scruffy-haired gentleman is just beginning to make his presence felt, and there's no doubt that he is coming on stronger with each day.

ALL ABOUT ALBUMS
Nina Simone has recorded what will probably prove to be her finest and most popular album, "Here Comes the Sun," on the RCA label, includes such currently popular songs as "Just Like a Woman," "O-O-H Child," and the title song, "Here Comes the Sun."

The platter is done in her exclusive style and comes on strong with most of these cuts. Hold onto your seats, folks, like and Tina Turner have released a live album called "What You Hear Is What You Get—Live at Carnegie Hall," and it's a genuine toe stomper.

Like many other people, it would be nice to hear more from like but when you have Tina there really isn't any complaining to be done. It's bound to be a great platter, for United Artists.

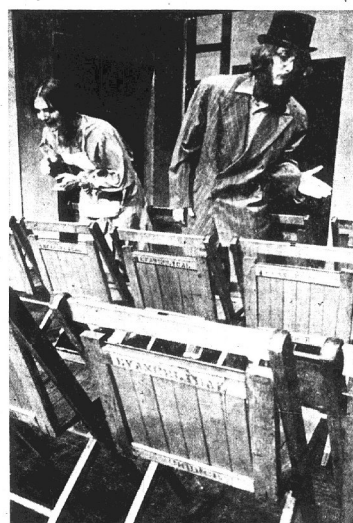

On the soft side, High Manpower has joined that group of musicians who try to record a hit album with songs made popular by other artists, and in his case the effort is rewarded by some fine sounds.

In "People... One To One" (Capitol), Montenegro skillfully adds fire and class to Neil Diamond's "I Am... I Said," Paul Simon's "Bridge Over Troubled Water," and a medley of three David Gates songs.

Tina Turner Lauded For Merit Test Score

Virginia "Tina" Perdue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Perdue, 213 Grand Ave., has received a letter of commendation for her high performance on the 1971 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

She is a senior at St. Teresa Academy, East St. Louis, and scored within the upper 25 of those expected to graduate from high school in 1972. The commended students rank just below the 15,000 semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

The commended students' names are reported to various scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test in February of 1971.

The reports include home addresses, test scores, and anticipated college major and career intentions of the commended students. NMSC encourages these students to make every effort to continue their education.

Rufus Brown, 61, of Brooklyn, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:15 p.m. Monday with injuries sustained when he fell off a minibike. He had lacerations to the head and fingers. The man was brought here in an East St. Louis ambulance.

THE CHAIRS. A student directed and managed play, "The Chairs," was presented at SIU-SW on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 in the Communications Building theater. Playing the part of a 94-year-old couple living in a lighthouse are Jane Jackson of Alton and Bruce Firestone of Little Rock, Ark.

Attends Peru State

Michael DeRuntz, 4609 Maryville Road, is among 1,001 students enrolled for the 10th academic year at Peru (Ib.) State College. He was graduated last spring from Granite City High School.

acceptance of the proposal, but various financing options are still under discussion, and Dr. Wellman estimated it might be the January session of the legislature, or even later, before final action will be taken on the proposal.

Two Blues-Rock Groups To Play Dance Concert

Two blues-rock groups, Jake Jones and Touch, will perform in a dance-concert, at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern at 8 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom.

Tickets for the concert can be purchased at the ticket office in the University Center. Admission is $1 for students and $1.75 for non-students.

Touch is St. Louis-based with four members. They include

Jerry Schulte, bass; Ray Stone, lead guitar and vocals; Bob Schultz, rhythm guitar; and Eric Salus, drums. Their latest album is titled "Street Suite."

Jake Jones, another St. Louis group, has played at festivals, clubs and concerts and uses all original material in its performances.

The concert is being sponsored by the entertainment committee of the University Center Board.

MRS. JENNINGS HOSTESS

Mrs. Jessie Jennings, 2914 Idaho Ave., entertained the Naomi Ruth Bible Class and the quieters of Trinity United Methodist Church in her home with a pot luck luncheon and a birthday celebration for Mrs. Jane Shafer, Mrs. Anna Esley and herself.

Table appointments were in a fall theme with floral arrangements. Members and guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Elia Dugger, and Mesdames Luella Mount, Matilda Leas, Elvira Reeves, Suzie Brewer, Sarah Hankins, Clara Anselvy, Clara Eearney, Mae Luckert, Alice Luckert, Melba Brainard, Virgie Beasley, Thelma Gillis, Ruby Johnson and Anna Dowdy.

HERE FROM ALABAMA

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fuller, 3184 Jill Ave., entertained as weekend guests in their home their daughter, P.C. Linda Fuller, who was recently married to P.C. Bruce Coleman. The newweds are stationed at Fort McClellan, Anniston, Ala., with the Army.

Mrs. Coleman is employed at the Chemical Center and School at Fort McClellan while her husband is with the 342nd Transportation unit there. He is from Massepeque, N. Y. The young couple is living off base and friends may write them at: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman, 607 Penn Ave., Apt. 25, Jacksonville, Ala., 32265.

The former Miss Fuller graduated from Granite City High School in 1970 and entered the Army July 24 of that year. The young people are planning to spend the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays in Granite City.

SPIRITUAL GOSPEL

SINGING ON SUNDAY
A spiritual gospel singing hour will feature the Wallace family and the Christianettes Oct. 10 at 2 p.m. at the Community Heights Assembly of God Church, Faith and Buxton Avenues. Rev. Sherman G. Cunningham is pastor and officers of the non-denominational organization are Wilson J. Carney, president, Bert Chapman of East St. Louis, vice-president, and Clarence Hagler, secretary.

The Wallace family, which has moved here from St. Louis, has been making appearances for 20 years, traveling through 12 states in singing tours. The group consists of Frank Wallace, his wife, Betty, two daughters, Myra and Tracy, and a son, Dale plus Debbie Travis, pianist and vocalist.

The Christianettes quartet is an all-girl singing group. Cindy Mahoney, Suzie Hartman, Lynette Kelley and Lynda Kelley are accompanied by an instrumental group—piano, Sandra Steward, drummer, Don Bradford, rhythm guitar, Gary Wood, lead, Chuck Koshal, and bass, Tom Parks. The Christianettes have toured all of Illinois and Missouri and will celebrate their seventh anniversary Oct. 15 by singing at the Mitchell Assembly of God Church.

The spiritual singers, appearing in West Granite last month, attracted several hundred Quaders at each appearance.

ing were Connie Maxfield, Kim Woodward, Jennifer Bischoff, Kim Elliot, Michele Hill, April Schneider, Donna Meyer, Kristy Jorgensen, Shelly Kruse, Brenda Hart, Beverly Burchette and Christy Gargac.

Refreshments were served to 100 young people at the Tri-City Park Tabernacle at an "after glow" service following the evening worship service. A film, "Crying Out Loud," was viewed.

BIRTHDAY BARBECUE

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, 2901 Dogwood Drive, entertained with a weekend barbecue and birthday party in honor of Lacienda Freeman. Other guests were the honoree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Freeman, and her brothers, Jeff and Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. George Staggs and daughters, Crystal, Michelle and Vicki, and the hosts' children, John, Beth and Becky.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green, 2541 Angela Drive are announcing the arrival of a daughter Sept. 29. She weighed eight pounds, six ounces, and has been named Kimberly Renae. She has a brother Tommy Jr., three years old, and grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Green and Mrs. Myrtle Lynn.

Russell Wernholm of Iron River, Mich., has been a guest in the home of his son, John Wernholm and family of Gaslight Walk.

40TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Biggs, 407 Kaseberg Lane, were surprised Sunday with a party on their 40th wedding anniversary given by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Biggs and family and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Lewis and family.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bennett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Singleton, Mrs. Mattie Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nance, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lucas and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Yokley and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bukovac, Velma Christian, JoAnn Hahs, Mike Olson, Sandy and Sharon Jones, June Covar, Gloria Bennett, Jimmy Biggs, Shelly Biggs, Alan Biggs and Freddy and Debby Biggs. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sullivan of Roxana and Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Lemonds of Hazelwood. They received many gifts and also phone calls from their son, J. B. Biggs of North Dakota, and their daughter, JoAnn Wall of Las Vegas. The dining table was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

HONOR CHURCH CLASS

Mrs. Linda Biggs and Mrs. Neva Lucas, leaders of the primary department of the Ponton Baptist Church school, entertained the graduating class Sunday afternoon in the Lucas home, 3804 Glenn Drive. A barbecue was enjoyed and there were games with prizes for each guest. Participating were Michelle Biggs, JoAnn Sturdivant, Rhonda Lewis, Betty Clark, Debby Noble, Ray Lucas, Scotty Lewis and David Noble.

VESTER WALL SERVICES

Vester "Jack" Wall, who made his home with his sister, Mrs. Vada Stogsdill of Edwardsville Road, was buried last week in Doniphan, Mo. His survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Peggy Chalk of Elmira, N. Y.; one granddaughter; six sisters, Mrs. Virgie Lowe, Granite City, Mrs. Verna Smith, Doniphan, Mo., Mrs. Vada Stogsdill, Madison, Mrs. Viola Tipton, Belle Garden, Calif., Mrs. Kathryn Lowe, Madison, and Mrs. Emma Sykes, Huntsville, Ala., and three brothers, Emil Wall, Waltham, Mass., Herbert Wall, Norwalk, Calif., and Virgil Lowe, Madison.

Guest speaker at the Christ Ambassadors meeting of the Tri-City Park Tabernacle was John Dare, formerly of Southern Illinois University, who spoke on drugs. The youth group has grown from ten four months ago to 100 at present under the leadership of Rev. Larry Swain and his helpers.

WELCOME NEW PASTOR

Lutheran Church Women of Peace Lutheran Church sponsored a pot luck supper Sunday evening to welcome the new pastor and his family, Pastor and Mrs. Charles Miller and children, Tim, Laurie, Lisa and Leigh Ann. The event was held in the hall following baptismal services for Margaret Carol Dyer, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Dyer. The dinner was held in conjunction with celebration of World Communion Sunday and the church's fall kickoff for church Sunday school; 62 attended, including the Bill Kierker family, former members who reside in Collinsville. Mrs. Carol Gendron, LCW president, introduced the pastor and his family and all joined in singing the doxology. Decorations were in an autumn motif, with "mums centered on the tables. Place mats were in bright green, orange and gold. Co-chairmen were Mrs. Elsie Unger and Mrs. Marjorie Burris, Lisa Gendron and Steven Chernoff.

Mrs. Chris Chernoff and Mrs. Marietta Schocker were in charge of decorations. The new pastor will divide his time between Peace Lutheran and Our Lord's Lutheran Church in Collinsville. The Millers reside in Collinsville. The Sunday services will be at 9 a.m. and Sunday School will be at 10:15 a.m. Sunday School teachers will include Mrs. Laverne Larsen, Mrs. Eloyious Kinder, who will be assisted by Mrs. Marietta Schocker, and Mrs. Nona Burris, Lisa Gendron and Steven Chernoff.

GAY BOWLER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY AT HAYRIDE
Gay Bowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bowler, 54 Cambridge Drive, celebrated her eleventh birthday at a weekend "hayride and slumber party" at Duke's Lake. Assisting the Bowlers were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Juda, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bowler Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Pendleton. A moonlight hayride was enjoyed by the group, which returned to the clubhouse for an outdoor wiener roast. Refreshments, including cupcakes, candied apples and soda, were served. Games were played and a horse show provided additional entertainment. Guests were Lisa Sandor, Pam Carnahan, Laura Finckler, Elaine Koesterer, Penny Gehron, Paula Gendron, Pam Bevins, Pam Tester, Christine Luckert, Brenda Hamm, Jamie Stone, Dee Dee Schleicher, Rita Lovins, Robin Munoz, Suzanne Chernoff and Regina Benson.

BIRTHDAY GATHERING
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Massman, 13 Lakeview, entertained Sunday afternoon for the birthday of their son, Michael. A "Flintstone" theme was carried out in the party decorations. Guests included Lisa, Kathy and Tina King, Tommy, Danny, Beverly and Terry Burchette, Mike, Bobby and Pam Zimmerman, Buddy, Scott and Timmy Barnett, Nikki and Shellee Marlette, Chuckie Johnson, Tammy Winters, Patrick Gibbons, Keith Wilson, Brian Geise and Darin and David Cluts.

BROWNIES AT CITY HALL
Brownies of Troop 1138, sponsored by the St. Joseph's

Altar Society, toured the City Hall Monday. The girls were led through the facilities by Patrolman William Harris. Included were the police department, the jail and city offices including the mayor's office, where they were greeted by Mayor Farney.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 456 held a Court of Honor at Lee Park. The meeting was opened with a flag ceremony by Dottie Foote, Mary Ellen Kittel, Rebecca Guenther and Donna Williams. Janine and Johanna Williams were welcomed as new scouts by Leader Pat Foote.

Receiving certificates for a civil defense first-aid course were Lori Durer, Rebecca Guenther, Mary Kittel, Rita Schmidt, Linda Williams, Donna Williams, Dottie Foote, Elizabeth Mulnik, Marcia Byrnes, Mary Williams, Mary Kittel and Dottie Foote; cooking, Mary Williams; safety, Mary Kittel; camera and water fun, Mary Williams; water fun, Mary Kittel; cheerleader, Marcia Byrnes; collector, Elizabeth Mulnik; and pen pals, Marcia Byrnes and Mary Williams.

Decorations were provided by Dottie Foote and Janine Williams. The honor roll was read by Linda Paterson, Marcia Byrnes.

Mission Group Aids Teen-Agers

A contribution to the transportation fund for a trip to a national meeting of Baptist girls in 1972 by the Acteen Girls of the First Baptist Church was made at a meeting Tuesday of the Mission Prayer Group.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Jessie Schwendemann, Rural Route 2, Collinsville.

The local organization of young girls earned the trip earlier this year and plans to attend the Baptist gathering in Ridgeland, N. C.

Reports made during the business meeting were submitted by Mrs. Myrtle Howell, Mrs. Patsy Eitelman and Mrs. Virginia Head.

Lunches were served by the hostesses to Mesdames W. I. Hudson, Pauline Harp, Rose Mott, Iva Olive, Velma Christian, Marie Allen and Janis Wooten.

BRIDE-TO-BE, Miss Linda Bohannon, who is engaged to James Russell Borth Jr., has been announced by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. William Bohannon of Rosewood Heights, Ill.

Sigma Rho Plans Halloween Party

Sigma Rho Tri-Hi-Y club completed plans for a Halloween party Saturday, Oct. 30, at a meeting held Tuesday night with the president, Lana Lupardus, presiding.

Committee chairmen named to arrange the event were Kay Fry, chairman of invitation committee; Carol Lakin, entertainment; Robyn Champion, food; and Sally King, decorations.

Members also planned to attend church services at Calvary Baptist Church, Oct. 24 in honor of the president who is a member.

Two new members accepted into the organization during the business session were Bette Devine and Elaine Todoroff.

Borth-Bohannon Betrothal Told

The Rev. and Mrs. William Bohannon, 35 West Ave., Rosewood Heights, Ill., are announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Linda Bohannon to James Russell Borth Jr., 1324 Jay Ave.

The bride-elect is employed as secretary at the Burroughs, Simpson and Wilson law firm in Edwardsville. She graduated Roxana High School in 1970.

Her fiancé is a senior student at SIU-SW, where he is majoring in history. He also is employed at Tri City Grocery Co.

Plans are being completed for a Dec. 4 wedding.

Hinson is Guest At Menard Meet

Kenneth Hinson of Madison, 5th Division Commander of the American Legion, attended a dinner meeting of the Chester Post at the Menard State Prison Tuesday.

Following dinner, there were speeches by the Department Commander Ed Schalk of Chicago and Ralph Scott, department vice commander of Carlyle. Warden Brantley introduced the division and district commanders. A question and answer period was given to veterans affairs.

The regular post meeting was conducted by the commander in the Prison Chapel. There were 52 guests and 38 Menard members attending.

The meeting was followed by an open house at the Chester American Legion Post Home.

Legion Auxiliary Visits Children

Members of Venice-Madison Unit 307, American Legion Auxiliary, visited Bennett Cottage, the Illinois Soldiers and Sailors Children's Service in Normal, Ill., this week.

The ladies took a farm wagon and two large size coolers as gifts for the cottage boys. Comic books, candy and other items also were taken as gifts.

Those attending enjoyed a picnic lunch, games and visiting with the boys living in the cottage.

Present were Mrs. Faye Smith, Mrs. Norma Hillmer, Miss Dorothy Hinson, Keith Hillmer, Linda Smith, Lisa and Katie Grimes, Sharon Taylor, Linda Leleniewicz, Linda Smith, Linda Vaughn and Carlotta and Elena Narvaez.

Rollettes Honor Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. Diane Wilson was honored on her birthday at a secret party at a meeting of the Rollettes Club held Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Connie Timley, 1619 Spruce St.

Those winning prizes in the games were Mrs. Debbie Bettorf, a guest, Mrs. Jeannette Wilson and Mrs. Wanda Sweeney.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses to those named and to Mesdames Helen Randolph, Edith Wilford, Betty Brooks, Carol Smith and Debra Blackshire.

Mrs. Wilson invited the club to next meet in her home, 2000 Beskwith Ave., Madison.

New Grandson for Two GC Couples

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Flaxbeard, 2533 Grand Ave., have returned from Walled Lake, Mich., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris, and a new grandson, Brian Keith Harris.

The infant was born Sept. 25 at St. Joseph Memorial Hospital in Pontiac, Mich. He weighed eight pounds. The Harris' have two other children, Robert Lewis, eight years and Lori Lynn, five years.

The mother will be remembered as the former Margaret Flaxbeard. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roe Harris, 2708 Myrtle Ave.

Grigsby JHS Sponsors Describe Club Programs

The curriculum at Grigsby Junior High School was the program topic at the first PTA meeting of the 1971-72 season held Tuesday night at the school. More than 100 parents, faculty members and students attended.

Al Rowden, boy's counselor and student council sponsor, discussed the curriculum and after-school activities. He was Letterman's club advisor, Mrs. Connie King, sponsor of the GAA and Cheerleader's club, Mrs. Sharon McDougall and James Swanick of the Drama club, Mrs. Laura Dones of the Glee club and Mrs. Laverna Corbitt, girls counselor.

Sponsors of the different school clubs introduced the student chairman and student council members who gave brief resumes of their activities.

Mrs. McDougall, girl's physical education instructor, showed a film which detailed the girls' student's gymnastic abilities.

Mrs. Sue Reinhardt, president of the curriculum committee, conducted the meeting and reports were given by Mrs. Eunice Tharp, secretary.

Mrs. Reinhardt introduced the PTA executive board members and Charles Weiss, principal and program chairman, introduced Assistant Principal, James Jeffries.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

BOY SCOUTS HONORED AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Boy Scout Troop 14, sponsored by St. Peter's United Methodist Church, held an open house and court of honor in the church fellowship hall with Scoutmaster Richard Foote St. in charge.

The meeting opened with a candlelight reading by Scouts Joe Favier, Craig Kalerger, Robert Roney and Richard Foote Jr., followed by the pledge of allegiance. Ted Scrum, district commissioner, led singing of "God Bless America."

Slides of Camp-Sunmen events were shown by Order of the Arrow Vice-Chief Rick Hooks and Chief-Elect Terry Toth.

Speeches from the audience were made by Hooks and Toth following the film.

During the award ceremony, boards were set up to represent each rank being presented. As the award was given, a candle was lit to illuminate the board.

Receiving tenderfoot patches were Bruce Wright, Tom Venne, Robert Roney and Doug Teaney. First-class rank patches to Joe Favier while Richard Foote Jr. received star rank and cooking and first-aid merit badges. Each boy pinned his miter with a replica pin of his rank.

'Faith,' Topic Of Honor Circle

"Faith" was the topic of a devotional given yesterday by Mrs. Pearl F. Campbell at a meeting of the Honor Circle of the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Circle members gathered at the church during the morning hours for quilting in preparation of the "Christmas Bazaar," an annual project of all circles in the Women's Society of Christian Service. The event will take place in November.

A sack lunch was served at noon and a dessert course was provided by the hostess, Mrs. Augusta Pender.

During the afternoon program, Mrs. Campbell read quotations from the book, "Apples of Gold." The Scripture reading was taken from Hebrews, Chapter 11. Mrs. Mildred Cundiff furnished the piano accompaniment for the hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers."

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clara Wadlow, chairman, with members reporting a total of 74 sick calls made.

Navy Mothers Start Book Drive

Quad-City Navy Mothers, Unit 850, has started its annual drive to collect paperback books for distribution at veterans hospitals and to troops serving in Vietnam.

Mrs. Bette Mertz, 3312 Terrace Lane, again is heading the "books-for-service" campaign. She will accept donations of books, in any quantity, at her home or by calling 877-0629 for pickup service.

Books contributed by local residents are boxed and shipped to the Great Lakes Naval Hospital, Danville Hospital and Hostess Houses, located in Tennessee and California.

Monetary gifts to buy special treats and toiletries for the hospitalized servicemen also are frequently donated by the Quad-City Navy Mothers.

Shipments currently are being prepared for the Great Lakes Naval Hospital, Danville Hospital and Hostess Houses, located in Tennessee and California.

Memorial, Tribute to Rev. Dr. Lynn Planned

A memorial will be established and a special service will be held early next month in memory of the late Rev. Dr. A. Ralph Lynn, pastor emeritus of First United Presbyterian Church of Granite City.

Arrangements for both activities were discussed Monday evening by members of the First Presbyterian Session, the local church's governing body, who met at the Thompson Retreat House, a new facility located on Ladue Road in Creve Coeur, Mo.

The Rev. Dr. Lynn died Sept. 26 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Alton. He had served as associate pastor at the Alton First United Presbyterian Church since retiring here 12 years ago. Prior to retirement, he was pastor of the local church for many years.

The Rev. Dr. David B. Maxson, pastor, was in charge of Monday's meeting and E. E. Veihl was named chairman of a committee to arrange the memorial tribute to Dr. Lynn.

The public will be invited to attend the memorial service, tentatively set for a Sunday afternoon in early November, Veihl said.

Steel Imports Up 60% Since 1970

Through the first eight months of this year foreign producers sent 60% more steel into this country than they did during the same period of 1970, according to Commerce Department data supplied to the American Iron and Steel Institute.

In August, 1,534,000 net tons of steel mill products were imported, despite a dock strike that tied up all major ports on the West Coast. The tonnage pushed total steel imports through the first eight months of 1971 to 12,298,000 tons, or 4,655,000 tons more than arrived during the comparable period of last year.

It also tops by a half-million tons the eight-month total for 1968, a year which ultimately saw a record 17,960,000 tons of steel imports. In 1968, as this year, the negotiation of a new labor contract in the steel industry was accompanied by consumers stockpiling steel through the first seven months of the year against the possibility of an industry shutdown that did not occur.

The pre-duty declared value of January-August 1971 imported steel was $1,735,798,000. Under the current voluntary

September Rain Above Normal, Tops 3 Inches

Rainfall here during September increased over the previous two months and was above the normal rainfall for the month. But rainfall for the year lags far behind the average for the first nine months of past years.

A total of 3.27 inches of rain fell in the Quad-City area during last month, more than the totals of the previous two months combined. Rainfall in July was 2.01 inches, and only .17 of an inch of rain fell here in August.

The average for the month is 2.76.

Rainfall in the first nine months of 1971 has totaled 18.55 inches or 8.5 inches below the average of 27.05. The figure in the same period of last year was 26.32 inches.

The largest rain in September was on Sept. 6, when 1.57 inches fell. Next was Sept. 20, when 1.05 inches of rain was recorded. Other days in which rain fell were the 11th, .30 of an inch; 16th, .26 of an inch; 19th, .24 of an inch; and 25th, .05 of an inch.

arrangement by which Japanese and European steel producers have pledged to limit their shipments to this country, U.S. imports should total no more than 15,435,000 during all of 1971.

MADISON SAFETY TREASURE CHEST. The Laclede Steel Co. employees shown have made safety pay. The steelworkers shared $294 in "treasure" from a safety treasure chest contest conducted by the company safety department. Receiving their

Boy, Elkhound Take 2 Trophies in 1st Show

A 10-year-old Granite City boy and his pet, a Norwegian elkhound, walked off with two first-place trophies during the weekend at an "all breeds fun match" dog show sponsored by the Gateway Breeders Dog Club of St. Louis.

The event, held at Larimore Park, St. Louis, was the first show for Rick Burroughs, 10, and his dog, "Treena of Old Castle," a 6-month-old female Elkhound. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burroughs, Rural Route Two.

Each judge reviewing the pair commended the boy on his handling techniques and awarded him first in class, puppy 6-9 months old and handling.

He also received a fourth-place ribbon in junior handling, competing with more than 20 entrants, and represented his group in "best puppy in show" judging.

He has groomed and trained the elkhound himself since getting the animal three months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs breed and train St. Bernard dogs but felt their own animals were too large for the boy to handle and acquired the smaller dog for their son.

National 4-H Week Is Observed in County

National 4-H Week began Sunday and Madison County 4-H'ers have been working hard to get 4-H week activities underway. Many stores have 4-H window displays and posters on exhibit throughout the county. The window displays are done on a club basis and were judged Tuesday. The posters were made by individual 4-H'ers. The poster contest was sponsored by the Madison County 4-H Federation and were judged last week.

"4-H Bridges the Gap" is the theme for the week, but 4-H'ers bridge the gap all year. The 77,000 Illinois youth who take part in the 4-H program are continually working together to bridge many gaps.

One of the biggest gaps that is that of rural-urban. For many years 4-H has been an important influence in rural areas, a spokesman has noted. It has taught young boys and girls better agricultural and homemaking practices. Times are changing, however, and so is 4-H. It is not only a rural organization anymore.

Anyone may join 4-H and "now is the time." Many new projects have been added to help bridge the rural-urban gap so now city dwellers, as well as farm youth, can be active in the 4-H program.

At present, about two-thirds of Illinois' 4-H members live in towns and cities, not rural farms. More than 10,000 live in cities of 50,000 or more.

4 Juveniles Caught

Charles Mullinax, 2256 Waterman Ave., reported Monday that he had caught four juveniles who had been throwing eggs on his home and auto during the past year. Their names were turned over to the juvenile officer.

"Many gaps are being bridged and the bridge building program is big enough to include everyone—young and old, urban and rural," the spokesman said. "To find out how you can be a part of the 4-H movement, contact the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service, Box 68, 900 Hillsboro, Edwardsville, 62025 (phone: 656-4862)."

Two Drivers Injured; Post and Sign Struck

Two drivers were injured when autos of Marlene Riggs, 17, of 2008 Harding Blvd., and Sharon Finke, 29, of 2701 Sunset Drive, collided Monday at Faith and Myrtle avenues. Both cars veered, with the Riggs auto striking a utility pole on Faith and the Finke car hitting a stop sign on Myrtle.

Both were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital. Miss Riggs complained of neck pains and had a two-inch laceration to the head. Mrs. Finke suffered abrasions below the knees.

Legion Juniors Plan Programs for Season

Members of Venice-Madison American Legion Unit 307 Juniors formulated plans and Auxiliary programs for the season at a 22nd district meeting Oct. 2 in East St. Louis, where the theme for the state organization for the year was announced as Indian.

A slumber party will be held on Thanksgiving weekend in Fairmont City, a roller skating party is set for February, a leadership training session will be held Dec. 5 in Edwardsville and a department conference will be held in April at Springfield.

Two district meetings will be held in Collinsville and Fairmont City.

The girls are to make scrapbooks for the Children's Homes and tray favors for veterans in hospitals and send contributions to the Indian Children Fund.

The group also plans to study the country of Kenya and contribute to Care, aid the Senior Auxiliary in its programs and save coupons for a scholarship program.

Attending the district meeting were Beth Orasco, Shirley Taylor, Kim Robinson, Linda Vaughn, Elena Narvaez and Miss Dorothy Hinson.

Six Foreign Films Scheduled at SIU-SW

Six foreign films will be presented at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern this year at the Slavic and East European Film Festival. All films are shown at 12:30 and 7:30 p.m. in the University Center River Rooms and are free to students, faculty and the general public. All the productions are shown in the original language with English subtitles. The series will include:

Oct. 13: "Eugene Onegin," a Russian color film made in 1958. It is a film version of Tchaikovsky's opera based on Pushkin's novel and runs 106 minutes.
Nov. 16: "Living Heroes," a Lithuanian film made in 1960.

The 78-minute production features four short stories of Lithuanian children from the 1920's to the present.
Feb. 16: "The Round Up," a Hungarian film made in 1965. This is a "round-up" of Hungarian freedom fighters set in the Austro-Hungarian empire in 1898.
March 8: "Karakatit," a 1951 film based on Karel Capek's novel about the discovery of atomic power.

SIU-SW Seeking Bids For Student Insurance

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern is advertising for bids for a group hospital, medical and surgical insurance plan which it hopes to be able to offer students enrolling for the winter quarter. Bids are being requested on six different options, none of which are compulsory.

Robert Murray, University purchasing officer, said bids will be opened at 2 p.m. on Oct. 25. No decision will be made until this option will be offered students until the bids have been studied.

Purple Door to Open New Season Saturday

The Purple Door Coffee House will open a new season Saturday night at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Hours will be from 9 o'clock to midnight.

Entertainment will be provided by "The Movement" of Metropolis, an ecumenical folk-singing group organized about three years ago. It contains high school students from five denominations. The coffee house is governed by a board of directors of the church's youths. Board members are James Loy, chairman; Gary Loy, decorations; and Kevin Baugh, Joanne Metz and Sandy Voss.

Parents' Day Program Planned at Ill. State

Open discussions of four problems that confront university students will be a highlight of the annual Parents' Day program at Illinois State University on Saturday. Faculty and administrative staff members will moderate afternoon talks. Student leaders will take an active part in the sessions. Parents will be honored at the football game against Eastern Illinois University.

Art Students Outwit Instructor at SIU-SW

Paul Adkins, an art instructor at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, admits to being outwitted by students in his elementary sculpture class.

Adkins assigned a project involving suspension of five pounds in the air for five minutes. Material for the project was limited to a cost of one dollar or less. The class turned up with such imaginative ideas, Adkins was hard put to name a winner.

Much to the Instructor's chagrin, one student suspended a five-pound English note from a balloon. Another wrote the words "five pounds" on a piece of cardboard and flew it from a kite.

"I guess I didn't word the assignment very well," Adkins says. "When I spoke of five pounds, I was thinking of weight."

One ingenious sculpture student filled a balloon with five pounds of helium and let it go. Mark Carr of Belleville and Norma Rathert of Edwardsville, came up with the idea of dissolving five pounds of sugar in hot water and spraying it in the air with a paint spray gun. Asked how the assignment could be linked with sculpturing, Adkins said, "any kind of three-dimensional activity could be termed sculpture. The object here was to get the student to exercise his imagination. It was kind of a warm-up problem, calling for inventive methods of solution. The class outmaneuvered me, and the winner is a toss-up."

ISU Will Drop Fall, Winter Graduations

Eastern Illinois University has announced that it will discontinue immediately the practice of holding four commencement exercises each year.

Officials said a return to the more traditional program of spring and summer commencement is necessary because of current budgetary restrictions. Commencements originally scheduled for fall quarter, Nov. 20, and winter quarter, Feb. 26, have been cancelled. Dr. Lavern Hamand, dean of the Graduate School and faculty marshal, said he urges all students completing graduation requirements at the close of fall and winter quarters to participate in the annual spring commencement.

Miss Dewitt Selected As Queen Semifinalist

Miss Dottie Dewitt of Granite City, a senior majoring in elementary education, is one of 12 semifinalists for Homecoming Queen at the University of Missouri at Columbia. She is sponsored by Delta Gamma sorority.

The 12 girls were selected from a group of 25 coeds on the basis of beauty (5 points), figure, dress and grooming (5 points), and personality and poise (5 points), by a panel consisting of 14 students, faculty and alumni.

The semifinalists will be reduced to seven finalists at 7 p.m. today following three-minute talent sketches and answers to questions posed by judges. The student body vote for the queen on Oct. 18. The finalists will be presented during halftime ceremonies Saturday at the Missouri-Nebraska football game and will appear on television and radio shows.

Coed Rules on Hours Relaxed at McKendree

The McKendree College Board of Trustees Saturday approved a recommendation by the faculty student life committee, the Faculty Council and the dean of students recommending relaxation of rules governing hours for women students.

Dr. Eric Rackham, president, explained that last year the faculty granted "relaxed hours" to students that had parental permission with the exception of freshmen and students on academic probation. The trustees voted to extend the permission without exception and to drop the requirement for parental permission as unnecessary.

Relaxed hours means that girls no longer have to sign out when they leave after 7 o'clock, although they may, and they do not have to be back in their rooms at any stated time. "They are treated as adults, and are expected to be responsible as adults," Dean of Students Tom Darrah said.

$250,000 Goal Set By McKendree Board

The McKendree College board has adopted $250,000 as the goal it must raise this fiscal year to balance an austerity budget of $1,908,855.

The trustees meet three times a year on the campus at Lebanon. At a Saturday meeting the members adopted the new budget, pared from a proposed budget of $2,121,915.

The budget had to be reduced because of decreased state scholarship aid and a realistic appraisal of fund raising potentials. More students are living off campus, Dr. Eric Rackham, president, also noted.

Dr. Rackham pointed out that McKendree has 484 full-time students compared with 442 last year, but that almost half are commuting students. The residence halls are operating at 74% of capacity, and it takes a 90% occupancy rate to pay their maintenance cost and debt retirement.

Ogilvie on U. S. Freeze -- Public Willing To Do What Is Needed for Good of Nation

By GOVERNOR RICHARD B. OGILVIE

President Nixon is working overtime these days developing plans for the next phase of his bold economic program.

In making those plans he is relying heavily on the advice and the suggestion of a broad cross-section of key elements in the American economy.

Businessmen, labor leaders, farmers, consumer groups, local officials — he has met with them all. And he has listened.

That's why I juggled my busy Illinois Schedule at the last minute to meet with him in the White House, and discuss the nation's economic plans for the near future.

He sent his presidential jet, Air Force One, to the National Governor's Conference, to pick up a group of nine governors for this unprecedented session.

All of us had recently been elected to the Executive Committee of the conference.

We came from both political parties, and from every section of the country—from Rhode Island and Idaho from South Carolina and Minnesota.

Along with representatives of the National Association of County Officials and the National League of Cities, we engaged in a free-wheeling, two-hour discussion of what should follow the current freeze on wages and prices.

If there was any doubt about how important the administration considered this meeting, it was quickly dispelled by the sight of the men who came to listen to us.

President Nixon, Vice President Agnew, Budget Director Schultz and virtually every top presidential economic advisor were on hand.

It was a frank exchange of ideas and observations, and administration spokesmen admitted candidly that we raised questions about the freeze which had not been adequately considered.

For example, we noted that the President's action has free-en the fees being charged by various local governments for their services. In some instances, increases in those revenues already had been projected in barely-balanced budgets.

Yet, government expenses have continued to rise, as new services are required and new responsibilities imposed.

As a result, many governments are faced with severe financial squeezes.

It was to air these problems, and to discuss possible solutions, that we met with the President and his advisors.

And regardless of what decisions are finally made, this much is clear:

The course that is charted by the President for the months following the end of the current wage-price freeze will have a tremendous impact on city, county and state governments.

It will affect the prices we pay with your tax dollars — for our materials, and the wages we pay our employees, and our ability to undertake the initiatives being demanded by our citizens.

Most important, the course that is charted will profoundly affect the taxes you pay.

That's why President Nixon brought the governors to Washington. And that's why he assured us that our input would be sought on a continuing basis, through state and local government representatives he will assign to regular administration economic policy groups.

No final decisions, of course, came out of our meeting. The President will have to make those decisions on the basis of the input he receives.

But a couple of interesting facts did emerge.

First, it is clear there will be no time limit on whatever restrictions are imposed during the second phase of the President's economic plan.

Unlike the present 90-day expiration schedule, the President made it clear the second phase restrictions would be subject to adjustment.

ments in the economy, and on the progress of the economic recovery.

He emphasized his confidence in the recuperative powers of our free enterprise economy, and said the federal restrictions would not remain in effect one day longer than absolutely necessary.

The second aspect of our meeting — which was very encouraging — was the broad support for the President's plan voiced by everyone in attendance.

Regardless of party every governor in the Cabinet Room that day backed President Nixon in what he was attempting to do.

While there were differences over details of the program, our attitude reflected the mood of the nation — a mood which each of us, as governors, have had the opportunity to feel and hear as we travel about our states.

Everywhere, we have found a willingness to make personal sacrifices, and a readiness to do what's necessary for the good of the nation.

Whether it's a war against tyranny or against inflation, Americans historically have proven equal to the task, ready to lay down their lives — or their pay increases — for this wonderful country of ours.

Now, they are doing it once more. And the governors of nine different states — Illinois among them — assured the President that day that the states would be in the vanguard of that support.

In addition to the required immunizations, a mumps vaccine is available and has been found "quite effective," Dr. Suhs said, though the state department of public health has not taken an official stand urging the inoculations.

Traffic Death Toll Here at Record High

Fatalities in traffic mishaps here in the first nine months of this year reached a record high.

Thirty-nine persons lost their lives on streets and highways in the Quad-City area in the first three-fourths of 1971, already surpassing the total in all of 1970 of 22. Fatalities through September of last year totaled 17 and the number of deaths from traffic accidents during the same period of 1969 was 27.

While the number of highway deaths here had increased strikingly, the numbers of accidents and injury accidents thus far this year, are the lowest since 1963.

Total accidents this year, 1,420 compare with 1,237 in the same period eight years ago. In the first nine months of 1970, crashes numbered 1,832.

Last month, 123 accidents were reported, the lowest for October since October 1963, when 121 accidents were reported.

Injury accidents total 712, the lowest since only 586 injuries were reported in the first three-fourths of 1963. Last month, 53 were injured in traffic mishaps, the low since September 1963, when 45 were injured in accidents.

First Major Study Of Special Education

The first comprehensive financial evaluation of special education in the nation is being planned by the Illinois Governor's Office of Human Resources.

Director Paul J. Wismer said the office will seek $250,000 for the study to develop sound planning methods for special education.

"We must be certain," he added, "that school districts and special education cooperatives in Illinois will be financially equipped to provide special education services in the future."

Arlen S. Gould, special education coordinator, said information on relative costs of educating the exceptional and average child and a projection of special education needs are required for sound planning. He said five states have expressed interest in the study.

Observe Completion of Busy Century at St. Mark Church

REV. TERRY SHEA
Current Pastor

REV. PETER KAENDERS
First Pastor

St. Mark's Catholic Church in Venice will celebrate its 100th anniversary in special ceremonies Monday evening.

The centennial celebration will begin with a Concelebrated Mass at 6 p.m. Monday. Special guests will include the Most Rev. William A. O'Connor, bishop of Springfield.

Officiating will be the Rev. Terry Shea, pastor of the church; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick Klesner, pastor of St. St. Aloysius Church of Litchfield and former pastor of St. Mark's; the Rev. John Brockmeier of Springfield; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank Dirksen, pastor of St. Cabrini Church in Springfield; and the Rev. Gerald Wiegand, pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Effingham.

Servers will be Lorraine Daniels, Fred Durel, Jr., Henry Mulnik, William Schodroski and Roderick Hill. Organists will be Laurie Schmidt, Susan Wells and Mary Deviney.

The combined choir of the grade and high school will sing under the direction of Sister Rosemary.

The Mass will be followed by a reception in the church and school basements where photos and items celebrating the 100-year history of the church will be displayed. All former members of the parish, past teachers and assistants are invited to attend.

Church Incorporated

The church was incorporated on Sept. 29, 1871, under the name of St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church of Venice. Four lots were purchased on Granville Street near the Washburn Railroad tracks.

First trustees were the Rt. Rev. Peter Joseph Bales, bishop of Alton; the Very Rev. John Janssen, vicar general; the Rev. Christopher Koniak, rector; and Thomas Byrnes and Joseph Froehly, lay trustees.

The Rev. Joseph Spaeth was appointed as rector, with instructions to gather the Catholic people of Venice and vicinity and form a parish. The venture was unsuccessful as Father Spaeth was ailing and unable to bear the burden.

Another attempt was made in 1880, with Nicholas Liefertig and John T. Richardson appointed as trustees. The Catholic people meanwhile attended St. Michael's and St. Liborius Churches in St. Louis, and some traveled to East St. Louis.

July 1880, lots on Granville and Third streets were purchased, and the Rev. Peter Kaenders, who was ordained that year, was appointed by Bishop Bales as pastor with instructions to form the parish and build the church.

Father Kaenders lived in Mitchell, where he was pastor of St. Elizabeth Church, with St. Mark's as a mission.

He traveled between Mitchell and Venice on horseback, in a buggy and at times on a railroad hand car powered by strong section men.

The first St. Mark's structure was built in 1881-82, with the first Mass celebrated by Father Kaenders on Low Sunday, April 16, 1882. Francis Lowrie was organist and Thomas Loftus, Jr. and Garry Byrnes were altar boys.

Some of the early parishioners were the families of Joseph Froehly, Thomas Byrnes, Martin Jennings, Francis Lowrie, John Fichte, Thomas Loftus, Caspar Wang, John Scarlett, Caspar Vorwald, Patrick Craddock, Felix Kimmick, Jacob Frey, Henry Lenz, Michael Devaney, R. V. Crofton, Charles Weisback, William Moellenbrock, August Lohman, Henry Range and Mrs. W. H. Grayson.

The first school was opened in September 1884 with Prof. Serferini as teacher for one year. Father Kaenders then arranged for Sisters of the Precious Blood to take charge. These sisters taught until 1892. Dominican Sisters of Racine, Wis., succeeded from 1892 to 1899 and lay teachers again took over until 1904. F. A. Schulte was in charge, assisted by Misses Jehle, Snadden, Tierney, Grannan and Eager.

Ursuline Sisters Arrive
The Ursuline Sisters of Alton arrived in 1904 and served until 1910. They were succeeded, until 1921, by the guidance of Miss Adrienne Von Pfeiffer, Mary Eiler, Cora LaCombe, Louisa Boyer and Anna Smith.

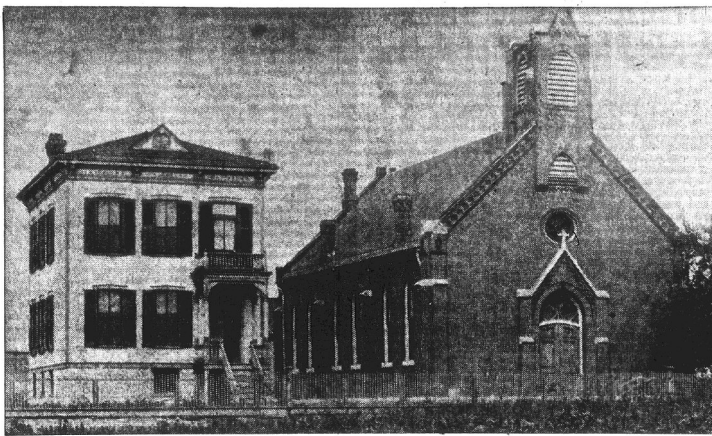

The Sisters of Divine Providence were assigned the duties in 1921 and have remained for the last 50 years.

An attempt was made to establish a St. Mark's High School in 1910. Father Kaenders instructed commercial classes in stenography, typewriting, bookkeeping and commercial law.

With the building of the Merchants Bridge in 1888-90, Madison sprang up and to help accommodate that growing city, a new church and school were constructed at Sixth Street and Broadway and dedicated in 1892.

St. Mark's in 1911 purchased the Evangelical Lutheran Hospital in Granite City. There had been a hospital adjacent to St. Mark's prior to 1911.

But the added burden of conducting both parish and hospital affairs undermined the health of Father Kaenders, and he retired in March 1921, two months after the hospital, now known as St. Elizabeth, was sold to the Sisters of Divine Providence, Pittsburgh, Pa. He died in September 1921.

Father Kipping Succeeded
The Rev. Linus Kipping succeeded him until 1930. He made a general cleanup of the buildings, purchased a convent for the sisters and installed an electric organ. He reorganized the Ladies Altar Society and the Young Ladies Society.

When it became impractical for the sisters to live at the hospital, the old convent was remodeled by Arthur and Joseph Musick and Vincent Saucier.

At the time there were 200 families in the parish, which covered North and South Venices and part of Madison and extended out to Bend Road. With the help of the Redemptorist Fathers of St. Louis, four Masses were offered.

School attendance increased and Sister Vitalis and Sister Severine arrived to help. Father Holmes was assistant in 1922.

Bishop Visits
The Most Rev. James Griffin, bishop of Springfield, visited St. Mark's for the first time to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on June 15, 1924.

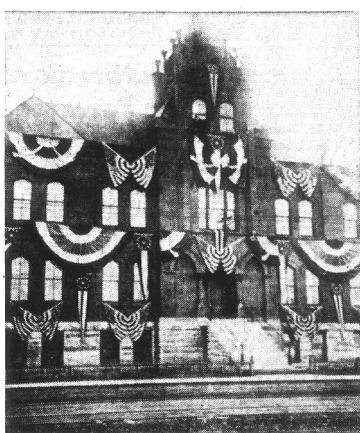

Father Holmes was succeeded on July 24, 1925, by Father Brockmeier. A new convent was erected on Lincoln Avenue on Oct. 1.

Father Kipping was replaced in October by the Rev. C. J. Fiori. Father Fiori conducted the pastoral duties of the church and school until September 1938, when he was transferred to Greenfield.

Other successors included Monsignor Klesner, who served until July 8, 1952. The new church at Sixth and Lincoln Avenue was completed in 1949. The Rev. Robert C. McCarthy was pastor until February 1969, when Father Shea, the present pastor, received the assignment.

As the area developed, St. Mark's aided in forming two other churches—St. Joseph's in Granite City and St. Mary's in Madison.

Ill. State Enrollment Tops Out at 17,930

Illinois State University's final enrollment for the fall semester is a record 17,930, an increase of 381 or 2.2% over the 17,549 enrolled a year ago.

Greatest increase came in the upper division, with juniors going from 9,297 to 9,397, up 10.4%, and seniors from 3,328 to 3,409, a gain of 14.3%.

Freshmen declined 10.9% from 4,769 to 4,228, while sophomores went down 3.2% from 3,736 to 3,617.

Master's degree students went from 1,935 in 1970 to 1,929 this year. Unclassified are down from 382 to 271 and specialists from 13 to 12, while doctoral students increased from 71 to 85, a 33.8% rise.

Of those enrolled, 15,514 are fulltime students and 2,416 part-time. There are 8,446 men and 9,484 women. Ages of students ranged from 16 to 66.

All but one of the colleges showed enrollment increases. Applied Science and Technology went from 2,443 to 2,479; Arts and Sciences, from 6,216 to 6,437; Business, from 1,916 to 2,145; and Fine Arts, from 778 to 856. Education declined from 2,485 to 2,138. In addition, there are 1,808 students listed as general, non-degree or undecided.

State Safety, Health Plan Being Developed

Nearly every worker in Illinois will be affected by a plan for occupational safety and health to be developed by the labor department in conjunction with the National Loss Control Service Corp. It was announced this week. The plan will be designed to meet compulsory standards of the 1970 Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act.

Natico, a nationally recognized consulting firm, has been awarded a $100,000 contract for services that will include recommendations for bringing state safety and health standards up to requirements and methods of enforcing them.

Would Daly's Support Be a Mixed Blessing?

By KEN WATSON
Copy News Service

SPRINGFIELD — Lt. Gov. Paul Simon of Troy could lose the election in winning the nomination. This is the latest political paradox fascinating the Statehouse.

It is a source of worry for Downstate Democrats eagerly anticipating future patronage plums—and another reason for growing encouragement among Republicans about the 1972 campaign.

The crux of the matter is that for the past six months or so Simon's public "image" has been undergoing a steady, subtle change. He is becoming increasing political, at least in the view of some.

Simon has attracted a sizable following, especially among the young, for his idealistic, above-the-battle "Mr. Kleen" approach to government. During his long years in the Illinois legislature, he was generally recognized as an anti-organization man. He frequently took legislative stands in opposition to Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley.

In his efforts to win Daley organization endorsement for the gubernatorial nomination, Simon during the recently concluded legislative session marched in step with the Democratic game-plan—even in several situations where the facts and public opinion might have dictated otherwise.

In his intensive drive to sew up the nomination, some contend, Simon has been cozy with Chicago Democratic professionals to a degree that has disturbed some of his old followers in the liberal ranks.

One result of this has been some strengthening of the independent candidacy of Chicagoan Daniel Walker, still walking northward up the state and insisting that he will run for the nomination no matter what Daley and his statemakers may do.

To some Statehouse strategists, Simon may be working himself into a situation where he could lose either way. By ruling out any shifting to the less desirable U. S. senator nomination, he is indirectly attempting to force the Daley regulars to give him the governor spot or lose him, as a Downstate bulwark on the 1972 ticket. It is conceivable that Simon could find himself completely out in the cold. (However, this would not prevent him from entering—and perhaps winning—the primary.)

If he does get the organization nod for governor, he would still face a primary challenge from the persistent Walker. Although a Simon backed by the vast power of the Daley machine would be an overwhelming favorite to beat Walker, he might not be able to win as big as he would like.

It is possible that with the political climate of the country being as turbulent as it is, the Walker effort could develop into an anti-Daley drive.

Thousands of Democrats, especially the younger ones, although not antagonistic to Simon, might well cast their votes for Walker as a protest against Daley and the Democrats' own political "establishment."

An unimpressive primary victory would damage the Simon claim of widespread personal popularity and convert the Republican-Democratic November runoff next year into a new and probably close ball game.

GCHS Athletic Equipment and Uniforms Bought

Athletic equipment and uniform purchases totaling $7,859 for Granite City High School were approved by the Granite City school board Monday night.

Most of the purchases were made on the basis of low bids, with minor exceptions where the savings would not compensate for the preparation of purchase orders. The purchases were made from eight bidders, with Bailey & Himes awarded the largest contract of $3,208.

Economy Sporting Goods was awarded purchases totaling $1,394. Markwort Sporting Goods $1,066. Champion $841. Graham's Business Products $726. Giesler Jorgen $179. Cohn Sporting Goods $175 and Safe-Tee Sports, $77.

The purchases included uniforms and equipment for tennis, golf, track and baseball. A contract, not to exceed $2,500, for repair of football equipment was awarded to All-American, Wheeling, Ill.

Order Library Books
In other business, the board purchased library books from the Baker & Taylor Co. Approval was given to continue purchasing additional books from the Illinois Reading Service.

A request to purchase three Singer sewing machines for $478 was approved. The purchase replaces a June 7 board authorization for three Viking machines which never were delivered.

A card file was obtained from Broadway Jobbers for $205 and a special printing order was awarded to Jamco Business Forms, Collinsville, on a low bid of $128.

A contract to replace two large windows in the high school cafeteria was awarded to Granite City Glass Co. for $350. The windows were broken by vandals last week.

The board approved payment of bills from the education fund of $38,405, building fund $36,632 and joint special education fund of $925. Travel expenses of $84 from the education fund and $27 from the joint fund also were approved.

Mini-Ship Docking Links Wharf, Tri-City Port to World Shipping

A new era in cargo shipping to and from the Quad-City area is being hailed since a mini-ship, the 215-foot cargo vessel, Mini Lama, navigated into the Granite City Wharf and Public Terminal on the Chain of Rocks Canal.

The mini-ships have been docking in St. Louis since early in 1970 but the docking here marked the first time a transoceanic ship had ever passed north of the Chain of Rocks locks.

Cargo loaded on the mini-ships can be taken directly to the Caribbean or Central and South America without reloading.

A fleet of 25 ships, operated by Mini Carriers Systems Inc., a worldwide operation, regularly serves Mississippi River and tributary ports and, without reloading, sails to Kingston, Jamaica, Puerto Limon, Costa Rica; Cristobal, Panama; La Guaira, Venezuela; and other ports in the Caribbean and Central and South America.

The Mini Lama arrived here with 519 tons of coke for American Coalfield, Inc., from South America and left Oct. 1 with several general cargo items bound for New Orleans after the coke was unloaded here. The vessel headed back down the Mississippi River.

Truly an international ship, the Mini Lama was built 13 months ago in Japan. It is owned by a firm in Greece. The captain, Chronis N. Polychronakis, resides in Piraeus, Greece, and the crew of 12 consists of sailors from Guiana, India, the Dominican Republic, Greece and the Philippines Islands.

It is fully equipped to carry containerized freight as well as bulk and general cargo. Two 15-ton capacity cranes toward the bow of the ship can load and unload bulk items and can be combined to lift a container weighing up to 30 tons.

The pilot house contains the latest in modern navigation and control equipment, including radar, depth sounding equipment, automatic engine controls and a remote control steering device with which the helmsman can control the ship from almost any point aboard, including the bow.

"At times, with a very high cargo on deck, I have found it necessary to control the ship from on top of the pilot house," Captain Polychronakis told the Press-Record.

Mini Carriers Systems also operates a fleet of 25 mini-ships in the Caribbean and is expanding the fleet as rapidly as the ships can be built.

The new concept in shipping is expected to add Mississippi River docks including the Granite City and Tri-City Regional Port District facilities, to the list of major ports of the world, a spokesman said.

A slogan for the shipping line terms the Mississippi River "The Fifth Seacoast" with the advent of the mini-ships.

GC Park Trip Nov. 7

Olympic Gold Medalist Stars in 'Ice Follies'

Peggy Fleming, the brunette skating star who won the 1968 Olympic gold medal in women's figure skating at Grenoble, France, and also captured three consecutive world championships, will appear with the 1971 edition of the Shipstad and Johnson "Ice Follies" when the spectacular plays the St. Louis Arena next month.

Harold Brown, Granite City park superintendent, today said that arrangements have been completed for a special "Ice Follies" trip to be sponsored by the park district Sunday, Nov. 7. However, he warned that, to avoid disappointment, all reservations must be made at the Wilson Park office by Friday, Oct. 29.

A total of 90 reservations, available to local residents for the single performance on a first-come, first-serve basis, will be located in the "very best section of the Arena," the park official said. He explained that the seats are situated in the first five rows of the Arena's center circle, eliminating the need to climb many steps.

Reservations currently are being accepted in person at the Wilson Park office, or by calling 877-3059, Brown said.

An admission ticket to the show, plus round-trip transportation to the Arena door, may be obtained at a cost of $ 6.50 per adult and $3.40 each child, 16 years and younger. Chartered buses will depart from the park rink pavilion at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 7, for the 6 o'clock show.

The 22-year-old Miss Fleming, who also captured the United States skating crown on five occasions, continues to use many of her Olympic routines in her Ice Follies performance, treating the audience to spectacular acrobatic jumps and spins.

She also performs modern and ballet dance numbers to a jazz beat with intricate variations.

Russell F. Briggs, 76, Dies at LaGrange, Ill.

Funeral services were held Monday for Russell F. Briggs, 76, LaGrange, Ill., the father of Mrs. Stanley (Rose) Young of Monterrey, Mexico, formerly of Granite City.

Mr. Briggs died of congestive heart failure Oct. 2 at LaGrange. Prior to retiring in February, he was employed for many years as a bookkeeper at Burke and James Co., Chicago.

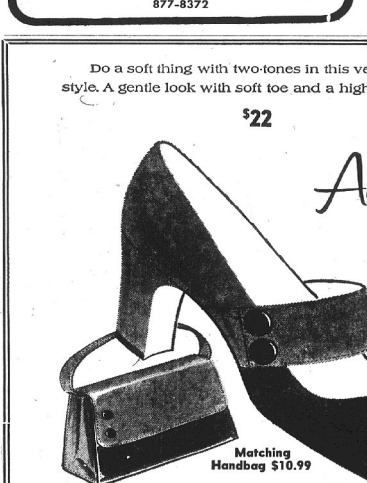

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Young, are his wife, Mrs. Florence Briggs; another daughter, Mrs. Hazel Urfer of Western Springs, Ill.; and five grand-children.

IN COOPERATION WITH THE ILLINOIS STATE EMPLOYMENT SERVICE
ANNOUNCES A PROGRAM DESIGNED TO ASSIST AREA VETERANS WHO ARE SEEKING EMPLOYMENT

FREE Work-Wanted Ads For Veterans

The Press-Record, with the cooperation of the Illinois State Employment Service is initiating a program of free work-wanted ads to aid our returning veterans who are seeking employment in the Press-Record circulation area.

Returning servicemen and women need and deserve our help and they often have something extra to offer an employer . . . Veterans have experience in many fields and hundreds of specialties . . . Trade, clerical, technical, professional and supervisory skills. In fact the military services spend some $3 Billion a year on training and there's over $1 Billion more available for training through the GI Bill and Manpower Development and Training Act.

Disabled Veterans receive special vocational rehabilitation to provide them with skills. Equally important, Veterans offer an employer maturity, self discipline and motivation.

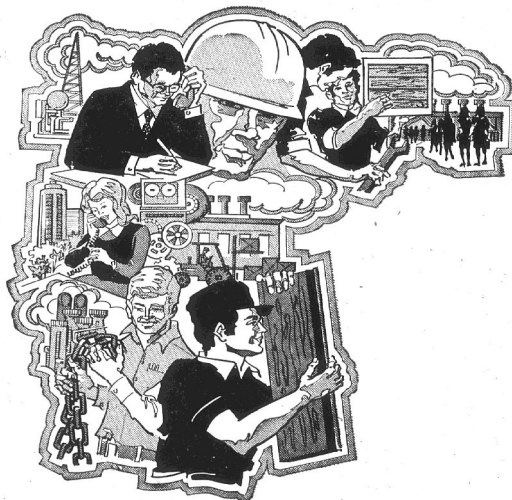

Do your part! Urge your firm to hire and train the Veteran.

TO HIRE A VETERAN . . .

Check the special "Work Wanted Veteran" column in the Classified Advertising Section of the Press-Record.

VETERANS . . .

All free work-wanted ads must be placed through your Granite City office of the Illinois State Employment Service at 2050 Iowa St., Granite City.

Pucinski May Be Selected to Run Against Percy

By JERRY OWENS
Copy News Service

SPRINGFIELD — Congressman Roman Pucinski, D-Chicago, is emerging as the leading prospect for the 1972 Democratic nomination for U. S. senator. The 52-year-old former newspaper reporter, an articulate spokesman in Congress for vocational education, is the Illinois Democrat most often mentioned these days in high party circles for the tough task of taking on Republican Sen. Charles Percy.

"I've had a lot of people—politicians, county chieftains, legislators and others—contact me about running for senator," Pucinski admits. "How does one say no? Yes, it's not an easy decision because I've built up seniority in the House."

As a seven-term congressman, "Pooch" is fifth-ranking Democrat on the powerful Education-Labor Committee, which generates more legislation than any other committee in the House.

He also chairs the sub-committee on general education that is concerned with the education of more than 55 million U. S. school children.

Because of age, ill health and other factors, the four Democrats ahead of him on Education-Labor may not be around too much longer. Pucinski says he sees the day, perhaps within a couple of years, when he could move up to the coveted chairmanship which Harlem Congressman Adam Clayton Powell once held.

"I've not been actively seeking the Senate spot, but it's going to be a spirited election in '72," he says. "I definitely sounds like he would be willing to head the state Democratic ticket, despite his House seniority and Percy's reputed political strength."

"It's much too early right now to make a decision," he adds, "but I'm certainly not afraid to run against Percy. I know he's considered tough at the polls, but I've had some tough races in my (marginal) congressional district too."

Pucinski, who is of Polish origin, represents Chicago's 11th Congressional District on the north side. He attended Northwestern University and John Marshall Law School. A medal-winning World War II pilot, he was a reporter for 20 years with the Chicago Sun-Times.

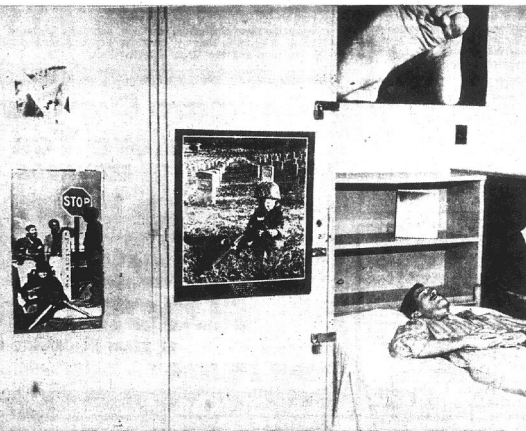

If he runs for the Senate, he will have several factors helping him. For one thing, the handsome, silver-haired veteran looks the role of a senator.

He is articulate. As a former reporter, he knows public relations and press needs well, and is extremely popular in Cook County. He has a reputation for being a vigorous campaigner who tends to the needs of his district thoroughly, usually returning home every weekend.

He seems to make news when his Chicago congressional colleagues can't, even if it's only issuing a statement decrying noise around O'Hare Airport.

He would have some debits in a statewide campaign. He is little known Downstate. And his ethnic name is hard to pronounce, perhaps a myth, but one that many politicians still cling to as being a campaign minus.

However, fellow Chicago Pole Ed Kocharski, a Republican helped explode the theory when he ran a strong race for state treasurer in 1970 against a Democratic tide.

Pucinski has appeared before statemakers for senator twice before, in 1968 and 1970, but endorsements went to William Clark and Adlai Stevenson, respectively.

Look for him to once again appear before statemakers. This time, there is a good chance he will get the nod.

It is generally believed that Democrats will slate an upstart like Pucinski to oppose Besides Pucinski, two other Chicago congressmen, Daniel Daniel Rostenkowski and Abner Mikva, sometimes have been mentioned as possibilities.

Youth, 18, Arrested

Gary Wayne Wheaton, 18, of 19 Briarcliff, was charged with petty theft and disorderly conduct after the hood of an auto was raised and a battery was stolen at 12:15 p.m. Monday at 24 Briarcliff. The auto is owned by Larry Pace, 2149 Washington Ave., who filed the theft complaint. The conduct charge was signed by Johanna King.

Stereo Set, Film Taken

Yung Sook Brooks, 1817 Maple St., reported Monday that while she was taking two friends home, someone entered her home and took a stereo set with two speakers valued at $150, five rolls of movie film valued at $125 and a 16 camera.

Smith Sales Up From 1970 Pace

A. O. Smith Corp. will earn about 60 cents per share in the third quarter of 1971, compared to 49 cents per share in the same quarter of 1970, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer has reported. The firm's facilities include an auto frame plant in Granite City.

While earnings in the third quarter are ahead of last year, when operations were affected by the General Motors strike, they are not as good as the company had anticipated because of continued softness in the markets served by the company's electric motor, electrical control and petroleum meter equipment businesses.

In addition, Smith said he estimated that the wage-price freeze will cost the company 14 cents per share in the third quarter. He did not estimate the effect the freeze might have on the fourth quarter except to say that the continued freeze would reduce profits.

Crime Everybody's Problem, No Simple Answers -- Simon

By LIEUT. GOVERNOR PAUL SIMON

Crime is everybody's problem, not just a problem for the cities. The FBI's annual crime statistics give us all reason for concern. They also make us look again at some of our assumptions about crime and crime prevention.

Some people will be surprised to learn that crime increased at a faster rate between 1969 and 1970 in suburbs and rural areas than in the cities of the nation.

Violent crime was up 5.5% in cities, 11.4% in suburbs and 10.7% in rural areas. Property crime was up 8.5%, 9.3% and 12.4% in the same three categories.

The largest single increase was for violent crimes by youths under the age of 18 in rural areas, up 23.3% from 1969. Most crime still occurs in the cities, and several Illinois cities were well above the state average of 23.47 crimes per 1,000 population.

East St. Louis reported 63.86 crimes per 1,000 people, Peoria 48.18, Rock Island, 33.09 and Rockford, 27.32.

Suburban Evanston had 23.69, Des Plaines 20.38 and Arlington Heights 13.60.

The Chicago metropolitan area, including Cook, DePage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will Counties, had 27.89 crimes per 1,000. New York reported 52.02, Detroit 51.48, Los Angeles 50.63 and Philadelphia, 20.79.

The FBI report shows how misleading simple solutions such as calls for more police are, Arlington Heights, with the lowest crime rate of the cities I mentioned, also has the smallest police department, with about 1.1 employees for every 1,000 population.

Peoria, with almost twice as large a police department (1.9 employees for every 1,000 people), has a crime rate two and a half times as high.

Other statistics, such as the number of physicians in a city, may actually tell us as much about its quality of life and tendency toward crime as the number of police.

The Illinois State Medical Society says a community should have a doctor for every 700 people.

Some Chicago suburbs, with low crime rates, have a physician for every 500 persons, while city areas with high crime rates show as many as 2,000 people for every doctor.

Of greater significance is the quality of education. Generally, the communities with fewer opportunities for a quality education are communities with high crime rates.

Crime prevention must begin with concern for all of our city services—health services, recreation, education, employment opportunities—not merely law enforcement.

Our crime problem is too important for us to mislead ourselves with easy answers.

Hospital Wing, Health Legislation Discussed

State Representative Horace L. Calvo, Leland J. Kennedy and Robert J. Walters of this district and Granite City Mayor Donald Partney, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk and Venice City Clerk William Ebersold, representing Mayor John E. Lee, were among guests at a luncheon given by St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Lay Advisory Board President C. E. Blankenship, in welcoming the group, said, "We want you to see first hand that St. Elizabeth Hospital has gone to great extent to meet the medical needs of this community."

William F. Hoelscher of the hospital executive committee led an informal discussion on pending and needed health legislation.

Following the luncheon, the guests were shown parts of the newly-completed addition which are related to the topics discussed.

Sister Mary Thomas, administrator, said, "We just want you to know that our only purpose always is the best in hospital care."

"Soon we will be a 400-bed hospital. Our expansion program is geared to accommodate our admissions, which have more than doubled in the last 15 years, and to provide the latest in medical services."

Scott Rules Constitution Bars 'Fee' Use by County

Attorney General William J. Scott has issued at Springfield an opinion clarifying an aspect of the transition to the new Illinois Constitution which abolishes the "fee system" in county government.

Under the old system, each county received a percentage of the taxes levied by taxing districts within its jurisdiction. The "fee" or percentage was used, in part, to pay some of the salaries of county officials and other expenses of the county budget.

With the adoption of the new constitution, this charge for collecting and disbursing tax dollars will become illegal Dec. 1. State's Attorney William V. Hoff of DuPage County, who asked Scott to interpret the constitutional change, also asked if aircraft carrier USS Independence which has been in the Eastern Atlantic participating in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Strike Fleet Exercise Royal Knight.

The seven-day exercise included 35 warships and 200 aircraft under the flags of Canada, the United Kingdom, Norway, the Netherlands and the U. S.

Scott told State's Attorney Hoff that it is the duty of the county treasurer to collect and distribute taxes in his county and is not an additional job for which his office is to receive compensation.

Further, Scott pointed out that there is no actual change in terms of dollars collected and distributed.

Three Law Suits Filed By Railroad Employees

Three suits have been filed in Madison County Circuit Court against the Terminal Railroad as the result of alleged injuries sustained by employees last August.

Kenneth White is seeking $350,000 for injuries suffered when he was struck by a rail car on Aug. 30 while checking doorseals on cars on an adjoining track in the Madison yards.

Michael D. Burk is asking $100,000 for injuries received while trying to place creepers under rails on Aug. 13. He was employed as a maintenance worker in the TRRA yards.

Raymond Morrison, a switchman, is asking $15,000 for injuries sustained while trying to pull a pin to uncouple a car being switched; it allegedly failed to operate.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. DAGON, whose wedding took place Sept. 11 at Calvary Baptist Church. The bride is the former Miss Sylvia Katherine Turner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Turner, 2017 Elm St.

Dagon-Turner Nuptials At Calvary Baptist Church

Miss Sylvia Katherine Turner became the bride of George W. Dagon on Sept. 11 in a candle-light ceremony at Calvary Baptist Church with the Rev. John Lamb officiating.

Bouquets of white gladioli and orchid mums adorned the altar. Aisle candles and white satin bows marked the pews along the center aisle.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Turner, 2017 Elm St., and Mr. and Mrs. William Dagon, 3845 "B" Street. The bride chose a floor-length gown of lace over white satin designed with an Empire waist, a round scalloped neckline and long tapered lace sleeves.

Her chapel length veil was secured with a forward headpiece of pearl leaves and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and tiny white rosebuds, looped with orchid streamers.

Miss Colleen Dagon was maid of honor serving with Miss Kathy Morris, Miss Faye Rushing and Miss Lora Edwards, bridesmaids. Christie Cornett was the flower girl and Bryan Lowe, a cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

All the attendants were dressed in formal length gowns of orchid satin fashioned in Empire style with lace trim on the neckline and sleeves. They carried arrangements of pom-poms and baby's breath in orchid tones.

Johns-Seitzer Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Seitzer, 2306 E. 25th St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Denise Seitzer, to David Johns, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Johns, 2664 Center St.

Miss Seitzer is attending Granite City High School. The prospective groom is a student at SIU-SW, where he is majoring in history.

Plans are being completed for an Oct. 16 wedding at Grace Baptist Church.

FEARS SIMON NO LONGER SUFFICIENTLY LIBERAL

To the Editor:
Regarding your recent editorial on Paul Simon and how he has sometimes come under the influence of an ultra-liberal, St. Louis newspaper—

I fear that former liberal Paul Simon is going to lose the votes of many enlightened liberal Democrats because he has come under the influence of the ultra-conservative Press-Record and the Copley News Service.

How does labor stand in the Tri-Cities area on the wage freeze?

Local 1715, United Auto Workers Union, the employees of A. O. Smith Corp., Granite City, supports International President Leonard Woodcock in his fight against the wage freeze.

Thirty members of local 1715 traveled on a chartered bus to Ottawa, Ill., Sept. 19, for an important rally which was attended by thousands of people representing all walks of labor.

Pres. Woodcock spoke on the fact that millions of dollars have been spent in order to obtain raises and cost-of-living for our members, and that he would do everything in his power to see that we received them as they due.

We have taken a poll by ballot in which our members voted 94% against the freeze in its present form.

We call upon all union members to mobilize maximum political support for correction of the injustices created by the wage freeze.

Among the injustices we include the following: While wages are solidly frozen, profits, interest rates and dividends are not frozen; prices are frozen only "on paper."

And while it is the wage earners who are asked to do all the sacrificing, big business gets billions of dollars in unneeded tax write-off windfalls under this wage freeze.

Labor unions have a duty to their members to stand up for their members' rights to make their feelings on vital issues publicly known.

The officers and members of Local 1715 urge every union to take a poll on this issue and to send the results to their congressmen. In this manner, we can let our representatives know how we feel.

QUESTION GOVERNMENT SCREENING OF LANDFILL

To the Editor:

In reference to an article published in the Press-Record Sept. 7, we object to state or federal funds being used to hide something that we feel should never be allowed to exist according to state sanitation laws.

We also object to the paper terming this a scrap yard, when it is really a dump. We suppose a landfill would be the most complimentary thing it could be called.

A large percentage of the waste being brought to a landfill from Missouri, so the faces of Illinoisans turn red from the unsightly welcome motorists get as they enter our state.

Thousands of tax dollars are to be spent to hide something that should not exist in a flood area to begin with.

EDITORIAL

shown steadily increasing reluctance to extend the draft.

The issue in draft authority for three months produced a record at recruiting offices which both Congress and the Defense Department will need to weigh carefully as they further examine the feasibility of placing U. S. armed forces on an all-volunteer basis.

Young men continued to volunteer for service at a high rate, but not sufficiently high to maintain the Army at adequate strength over an indefinite period. Eliminating foreign service remains a tantalizing ideal but there is no real prospect of accomplishing it soon without "lowering our guard" and inviting foreign aggression.

Things, in other words, could be worse. And marriage in itself is not the solution to all personal dilemmas.

But, as Dr. Marie Edwards, a clinical psychologist who teaches a seminar at the University of Southern California on "the challenge of being single," contends, there is a stigma attached to being single which is intolerable to some individuals.

For the man unable to accept a single blessedness, it can mean costly alimony payments, time and again.

For the woman, it can mean rejection of her own attempt to find compensation in extramarital love affairs, alcohol or drugs.

Being single, however, does not make one necessarily a freak—a fact psychiatrists stress. The vast number of people who are single has placed emphasis on the need that society has to accept and/or tolerate their presence.

For one thing, there is no reason a single person cannot have a healthy active life.

The unmarried individual—whether divorced, widowed or a confirmed loner who has never been married—is not necessarily psychologically sick, despite the taboos of the culture in which he lives.

Addressing a seminar on the single American at the University of California at San Diego, Dr. Edwards on "sexual problems" put stress on the fact that every mature adult has the capacity for relating to the opposite sex.

The psychiatrist, also a surgeon, declined to be quoted by name.

In a blunt monotone, he presented a strong factual case for heterosexual relations and marriage. He had a unique positive tone in a time of doubt and concern about so-called "normal" conduct.

"Each human being is born with a potential for sexual development," Dr. "H." said.

The form which that development takes is thought to be a matter of training, identification with male or female roles by the family, and the many psychological influences that come to bear upon the growing child in the form of cultural and legal precepts.

The course, one of many being offered throughout the country as the number of single men and women increases, and as their predicament becomes better identified, offered both psychological and physiological information on the roles people play whether married or single.

The number of women going for the course was triple that of men, a statistic noted by lecturers nationally to be relatively common.

There is no reason why a husband and wife, through trial and error, and the ability to learn to love, cannot succeed in having an enduring happy relationship which will contribute to their endurance as a married couple. That may encourage more singles to wed.

But, says Dr. Raymond Fowler, a marriage counselor from Claremont, Calif., hub of several colleges and universities, there are obvious pitfalls.

"The first two years of the young married couples are the most difficult," said Dr. Fowler. "They have a large amount of private counseling practices in addition to recurring at several major colleges and universities."

The middle years may prove the most difficult in which to adjust to fear of age and death and, for the man, a time to break the marital ties to gain rejuvenation by a liaison with a young woman.

The fact of life, though, is that four-fifths of the persons who marry for the first time "stay married until one partner dies," says Fowler, whose philosophy is based on the precept that there can be no solution to the problem of marital compatibility without the ability to "honest self-evaluation."

However, there are contrasting views which lead to marital breakdown, and to unions that inevitably lead to personal tragedies, Fowler says.

For one thing, women adjust better to living single, either as a widow or divorcee than does a man.

The man, who may enjoy sampling the sexual pleasures of single blessedness for the first few months, tends to be more dependent and to seek another partner.

Also, there is an imbalance of nature that contradicts the woman's desire to live longer than men.

"The ideal would be for a woman to marry a man five years younger than she is," Fowler said.

To marry to avoid being alone can be a serious mistake, especially for those in their 30s and 40s who have never been wed.

It is a problem because if both partners have not been married by that time, they have become so set in their ways that marital adjustment is difficult," Fowler said.

What happens if the "loner" decides to remain single despite social pressures, or because family responsibilities are such that a marriage would be difficult if not impossible?

There are "singles' clubs for persons of all ages that offer the possibility of companionship and, ultimately, marriage."

But, as one divorcee active in one of these clubs said, "these are not lonely hearts clubs. They are for the man who goes to a meeting like a bull in a china shop."

"And they should have an almost equal balance of men and women. Otherwise, they do not work."

Children and friends are not always the best allies for the divorced or widowed single, contends Fowler.

A child may "use a disagreement between parent and wedge for his own benefit," the doctor said.

Identifying the problem and making the child as well as mother and father aware of the cause of the split can reduce tensions and bring a reconciliation.

In a luncheon also attended by Mrs. Fowler, the attitude of singles who also came under discussion.

"As long as the divorcee or widow is having difficulty or is in the 'honeymoon' stage, they are sympathetic and helpful—until she makes a successful adjustment to being single. Then they may ignore her."

Ratkewicz in 2nd Year At Air Force Academy

Cadet Arthur G. Ratkewicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony V. Ratkewicz, 1608 Fifth St., Madison, is one of more than 1,600 cadets who have entered their sophomore year at the U. S. Air Force Academy in Colorado.

During the summer, the cadet and other members of the class of 1974 completed an intensive three-week course in water and combat survival and introductory prisoner-of-war training.

He also learned basics of air navigation during a three-week temporary duty program for third classmen. Following initial instruction at the academy, the cadet visited various Air Force bases for additional training and to observe combat crewmember duties.

Cadet Ratkewicz, a member of the freshman football and lacrosse team, will be commissioned a second lieutenant and awarded a bachelor of science degree upon graduation from the academy in 1974.

The cadet is a 1969 graduate of Assumption High School, where he was a member of the National Honor Society and lettered in football and track. He attended the Air Force Academy Preparatory School before his acceptance into the cadet wing.

Three Thieves Flee

David Raub, 2158 Benton St., reported at 10:25 p.m. Monday that a neighbor saw three youths entering his auto, yelled at them and watched them run. Nine tapes and headphones valued at $73 were missing, and a stereo set was dropped in the getaway.

Regional Report -- Missouri Levee Plan Assailed by Many

(Illinois Metro-East Industrial Development Corporation)

General opposition to the proposed E-15 levee in St. Charles County, Mo., was voiced by residents of the St. Louis area, including many from Illinois.

Objections included the assumed negative impact of the levee on recreation and hunting in the Alton Lake area, the potential for urbanization and industrial development of an existing open space agricultural area, and the effect of the new levee on the flood protection offered by existing levees in Illinois.

Pending legislation in the Illinois Assembly put area junior college districts in the news. Senate Bill 1188, passed by the Senate and pending in the House, would allow the Illinois Junior College Board to place all nonallied territory in a junior college district after Dec. 1, 1972. Residents have until then to form their own district or annex to another district.

Monroe County, not currently a part of any district, expects to be attached to the Belleville Area College district if the pending bill is passed.

At a meeting sponsored by the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce in Granite City, Dr. Fred Wellman, executive secretary of the Illinois Junior College Board, told citizens their alternatives are annexation to the East St. Louis or Lewis and Clark districts, the formation of a new district, or doing nothing and letting the state intervene. Further meetings to discuss formation of a new district for the Quad-City area may be called in the future.

In other area college news, the Lewis and Clark Community College, Godfrey, has a record enrollment of 1,751 students as it begins its second year of operation. Enrollment at State Community College in East St. Louis has topped the 2,200 student projection for the fall quarter by at least 50 students.

Harold B. Gegel, assistant engineer of operations for Highway District Eight, reports that virtually all area highway construction projects are on schedule.

However, the big test for highway progress this fall is expected on Oct. 26, when the Illinois Division of Highways has its new major bid letting. Expected to come up are several regional jobs which have been let several times before.

Lack of bids and excessive bids all nonallied territory in a junior college district after Dec. 1, 1972. Residents have until then to form their own district or annex to another district.

eral equal-employment compliance regulations affecting construction in the metropolitan area, the ultimate use of up to $100 million in highway funds believed used during the fund freeze, and labor-management work rules.

The task force plans to hold its next meeting in the district headquarters of the Illinois Division of Highways at French Village.

A loan guarantee of $1.5 million for the proposed Collinsville-Edwardsville area hospital has been promised by federal officials. Remaining funds needed for the proposed $6 million, 125-bed hospital, to be located at Illinois Route 156 and 162 near Maryville, are to be raised through fund drives and further borrowing.

The governing board of the proposed hospital, Southwestern Illinois Health Facilities, Inc., awarded a contract to Haney Associates, Inc., of Concord, Mass., to conduct a fund drive with a minimum goal of $1 million. The drive, now in its final planning stages, may begin this month.

In other area hospital news, a $5 million addition to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis was dedicated. Speakers at the dedication ceremonies included Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, Rep. Melvin D. Price (D-East St. Louis) and Mayor James Williams.

Plans to hold a fourth session of the Mississippi River Festival for six weeks in July and August of 1972 have been approved by the festival's board of directors. The board also voted to establish an organization known as Friends of the Festival to help raise money for the performances on the southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University.

In general area news, application for the operation of a commercial heliport at the Belle-Valley Industrial Village has been made to the Illinois Department of Aeronautics.

Bi-State Development Agency, in its annual report, said the Granite City Wharf and public terminal experienced a 17% increase in the last fiscal year in tonnage handled. And area industrial development leaders attended an Illinois Power Company-sponsored development conference at the Round Table restaurant.

Unicef Collections To Be Made Oct. 30

Residents in the Quad-City area will be visited on Saturday, Oct. 30, by youngsters who will be "trick or treating for Unicef" between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The young "goblins" will be collecting contributions for the United Nations Children's Fund under the direction of the Quad-City Ministerial Association, and will wear identification cards.

Kits for the campaign are available at St. John's United Church of Christ, 2201 Nameoki Road, for any church group wishing to participate in the project.

Tool Lockers Looted
Tools valued at $204 were stolen from two tool lockers of a construction truck owned by the L. E. Meyers Co. of Decatur while it was parked at Route 157 and Interstate 270. It was reported Monday to the Madison County sheriff's department.

Charged with Assault

Thomas G. Thomas, 47, of 2453 S. Delmar Ave., was charged with assault at 7:30 p.m. Monday after police answered a disturbance call to his home. Officers alleged that while they were at the home he raised his hand as if to strike at them.

We'll buy your car even if you don't buy ours

What's Volkswagen up to now?

Simply this: We're in the market for good used cars

So bring yours in. And we'll take a look.

We'll probably end up giving you more money for it than anyone else around.

Of course, if you see something in our showroom you'd like to drive home, please do.

Otherwise the bus fare's on us.

Animal Protective Group 'Tent Fair' on Saturday

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

Cuddly kittens and playful puppies needing "good homes" will be offered for adoption Saturday during a "tent fair" to be sponsored by the Association for the Protection of Animals, Mrs. Judith Johnson, local APA president, announced today.

The public fair, featuring new and used furnishings and handmade Christmas gifts, will take place inside a large tent erected on the parking area near the A&P Grocery store in American Village Shopping Center on Fehling Road.

Hours for the benefit bazaar will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Mrs. Johnson said.

Proceeds will be used to purchase a sound projector to aid the animal protective group in presenting educational programs before local organizations and at area schools.

A special booth will be set up where residents may adopt a kitten or a puppy, Mrs. Johnson reported. Youngsters wishing to adopt a pet must be accompanied by an adult or must present written permission from a parent, she added.

Additional contributions still are being sought from local donors to augment a growing list of items—including furniture, "white elephant" objects, garden pieces, tools, toys and bakery goods—already committed or donated to the fair, Mrs. Johnson said.

Pianos, Antiques

Many handmade Christmas decorations and handmade gift items will be available, the chapter president said.

Patrons also will be offered a choice of such diverse articles as a converted player piano (one of two upright pianos to be sold), several ice cream parlor chairs, cast iron beds and various antiques.

Discussing the donations for the fair, Mrs. Johnson said that by far the most cumbersome and difficult to load and store was the player-piano, the gift of an APA supporter in St. Louis County.

An advance pickup service is offered by the organization with donors asked to call 877-4594 or bring items to the tent the day of the sale.

70x30 Tent Loaned

The 70x30-foot tent is being loaned to the chapter by the Ralston Purina Co. of St. Louis especially for the bazaar. It will enable the group to carry out the sale in the event that Saturday's weather is inclement, Mrs. Johnson noted.

Mrs. Betty King, Mrs. Mary Kaye Walker and Mrs. Susie Cox are serving with Mrs. Johnson as bazaar co-chairmen.

The Association for the Protection of Animals has established a permanent $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons poisoning or torturing animals or stealing animals for sale to dog dealers or experimental laboratories.

Residents wishing to report pet activities are asked to call 877-4594.

More than 50 telephone calls were received by the local chapter in the first three days after a story describing the group's program appeared in the Press-Record. Several cases referred to the APA currently are under investigation, Mrs. Johnson said.

COMMENDATION BY ARMY. Clarence Cox Jr. (right), a lifelong resident of Granite City, accepts congratulations and an award presented by Robert Erxleben (left), chief of cataloging at the Army Mobility Equipment Command, St. Louis. Cox was cited for high technical skill in his job as a cataloguer. He lives with his wife, Ruth, at 4500 Walter Ave. and began his 27-year career at the Granite City Army Depot. A 32nd Degree Mason and member of the Scottish Rite, Cox holds a lifetime membership in the Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospital, having personally sponsored four children there. He has become a holiday institution as Mecon's jovial Santa Claus. Mrs. Pauline Laney, his mother, resides at 1633 Ferguson Ave.

REV. DONALD BOGUE
Bishop Will Ordain
Rev. Bogue as Elder

Rev. Donald Bogue, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Madison, will be ordained as an elder in the Methodist Church on Sunday at 4 p.m. Bishop Lance Webb of the Illinois area will officiate and a reception will follow.

Born and raised in Beresford, S.D., Rev. Bogue attended Grinnell College, Grinnell, Ia. He graduated in 1970 from Union Theological Seminary in New York City and since then has been serving the Madison church.

1962 Auto Stolen
Robert Aldridge, 2407 Lincoln Ave., reported Monday that his gray 1962 four-door auto was stolen from the rear of his home after midnight that day.

Charged for Conduct
Steve Muller, 15, of 200 Kirk Ave., reported Monday that his father, Patrick Muller, was charged with disorderly conduct at 9:20 p.m. Monday at Kate and East 24th streets.

Ecumenical Institute Here to Start Friday

A full weekend course, taught by Ecumenical Institute of Chicago trained teachers, will be held this weekend at Central Christian Church, with residents of all faiths welcome to attend.

The 44-hour course, Religious Studies I, is outlined to "provide Christians the tools for decisive action in a secular world." It will begin at 7 p.m. Friday and will continue through noon Sunday.

Those enrolled will be provided meals and sleeping facilities if desired at the church, 2020 Johnson Road. Four lectures on contemporary study papers and short courses on a prayer, study life, worship, art A & P Market, 20th Street and forms and other religious forms will be included in the course.

Registration is $15 per person and $25 per couple.

"Never has there been a more exciting opportunity for a thorough pulling together of the Christian faith for laymen in a few hours," Dr. L. Jim Anderson, minister of Central-Christian Church, has commented.

Parking Lot Accident

George P. Widel Jr., 1732 Chestnut St., reported Monday afternoon that a hit-and-run driver's vehicle had struck the right fender of his auto while it was parked on the lot at an A & P Market, 20th Street and Madison Avenue.

Burglars Loot Auto, Store and Take Truck

Burglars looted the National Auto Parts Co., 19th Street and Madison Avenue, after 3 p.m. Sunday, it was galled by moving a panel from a rear overhead door.

Items taken, valued at $1,755, were truck keys, two adding machines, $150 cash, 15 sets of small tools, two drive sets, a sander and polisher, test equipment, six floor jacks and miscellaneous tools. A white panel truck was taken, and an unknown amount of used brake shoes was missing from the rear of the building.

Register at State Office for County Emergency Jobs

"The Madison County Emergency Employment Program Office has been besieged by people applying or inquiring how to apply for jobs. We would like to establish a system or method which people may follow," Director Dan Churovich has told the Press-Record.

"All of our jobs must be filled by applicants who have an active application filed with the Illinois State Employment Service. Therefore, we recommend that any persons interested in seeking employment in this program go first to the ISES and apply for employment there. This gives these people a double chance for employment, because the ISES will also try to find jobs for them," Churovich noted.

"If they feel that they are qualified for employment in this program, they may ask at their state employment office for our application. All three ISES offices in Madison County have our application. The state office will forward that application to us."

"We hope that this will save these people who are seeking employment any unnecessary trips to Edwardsville because this would be an expense that they need not bear. Any inquiries for information may be made to this office by telephone (656-9495) or through the Granite City ISES."

Seventeen persons were at work at the end of September under the county program.

Included were 16 men and one woman. Nine are Vietnam veterans, 13 are veterans of military service, four were public assistance recipients and two are handicapped.

Nine are in the $3 to $4 per other is in the $2 to $3 bracket.

Thirteen are between 22 and 44 years old, one is 61 and two are 19 and 29 years old. Two have an eighth-grade education or less, six are non-high school graduates and three have had at least one year of college.

The program is being operated under a $441,000 federal grant, which includes 10% county matching funds. The program is being expanded under a new allocation of $185,000 for unemployed persons in Granite City, Madison-Venice and Alton.

City Billed $30 for Damage to Bean Field

Ralph W. Bechmann, a Rural Route One farmer, has billed the city of Granite City $30 for damage to his soybean field west of Federal Aid Route 151 and south of West Pontion Road.

In a letter read to the City Council Monday night, Bechmann related that on Sept. 25, between midnight and 1 a.m., Granite City Police chased a stolen car belonging to Richard Herbolt, 2439 Pontion Road, into his field. Officers then authorized a towing company to drive a tow truck about 700 feet into the field to remove the car without his knowledge or consent, he said.

The matter was referred to the city attorney.

Woman Loses Wallet

Marie Zimmer, 2632 Madison Ave., reported at 4:20 p.m. Monday that she had lost her light blue wallet containing $60 and papers on the parking lot of the Granite City Post Office.
